Alpha 1987

A New Tradition . . .
Our own name for our 7-8 yearbook. In keeping with Omega's use of the Greek alphabet the 7-8 staff has chosen Alpha as the name for our book. It is the beginning of the Greek alphabet, a perfect symbol for the beginning of a high school career.

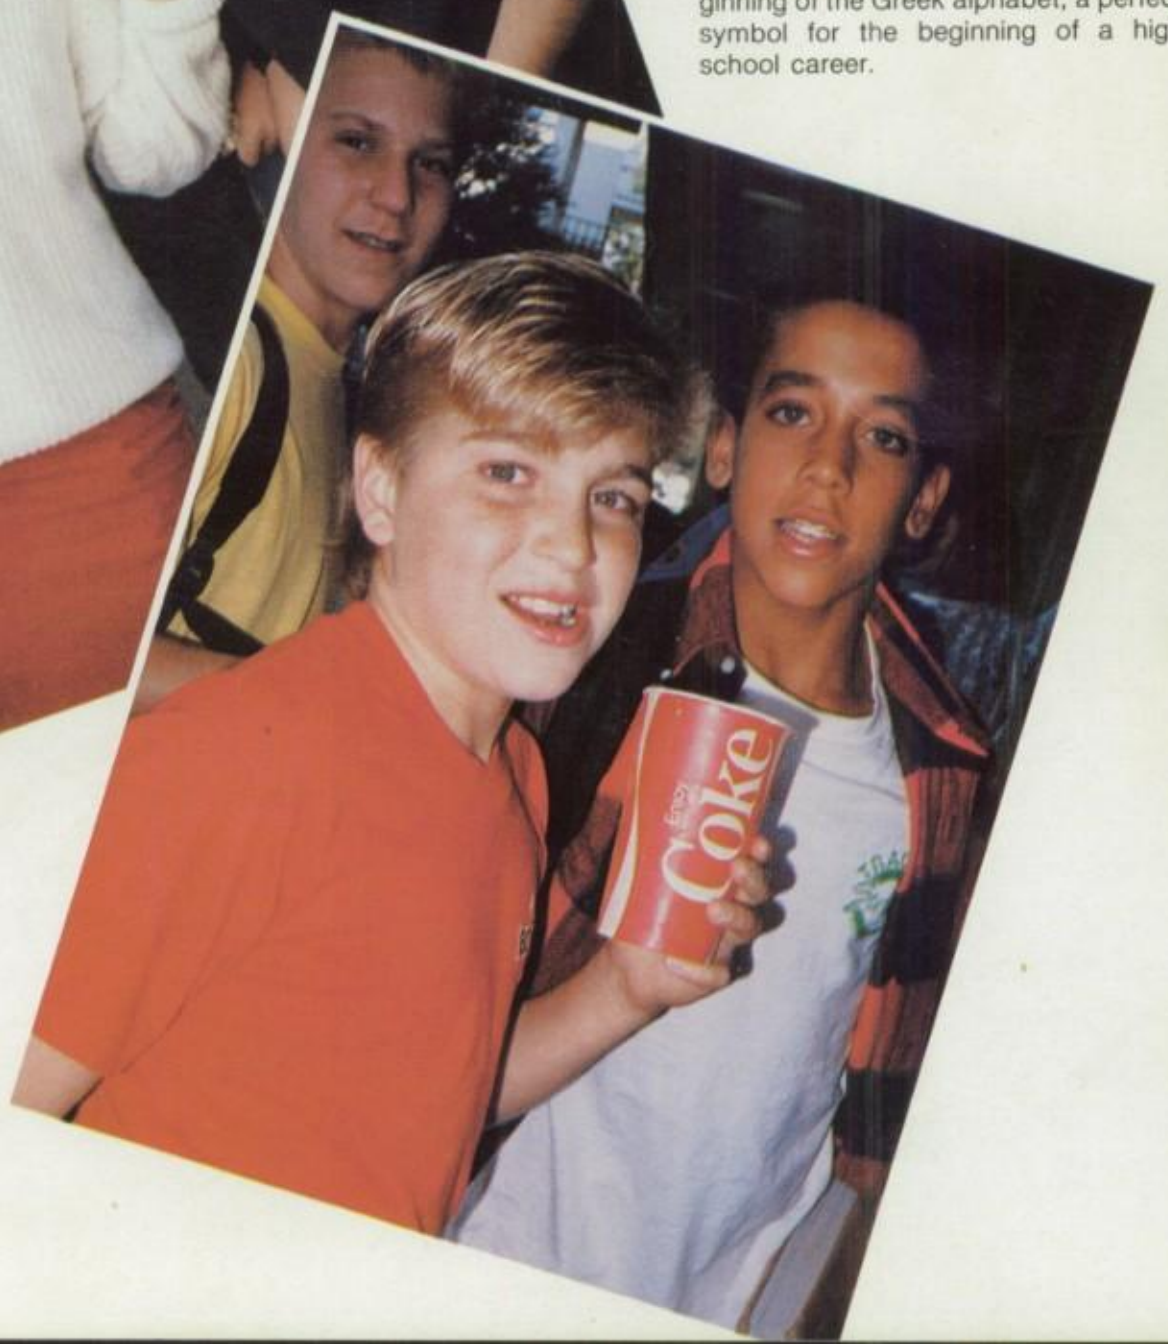

TABLE OF

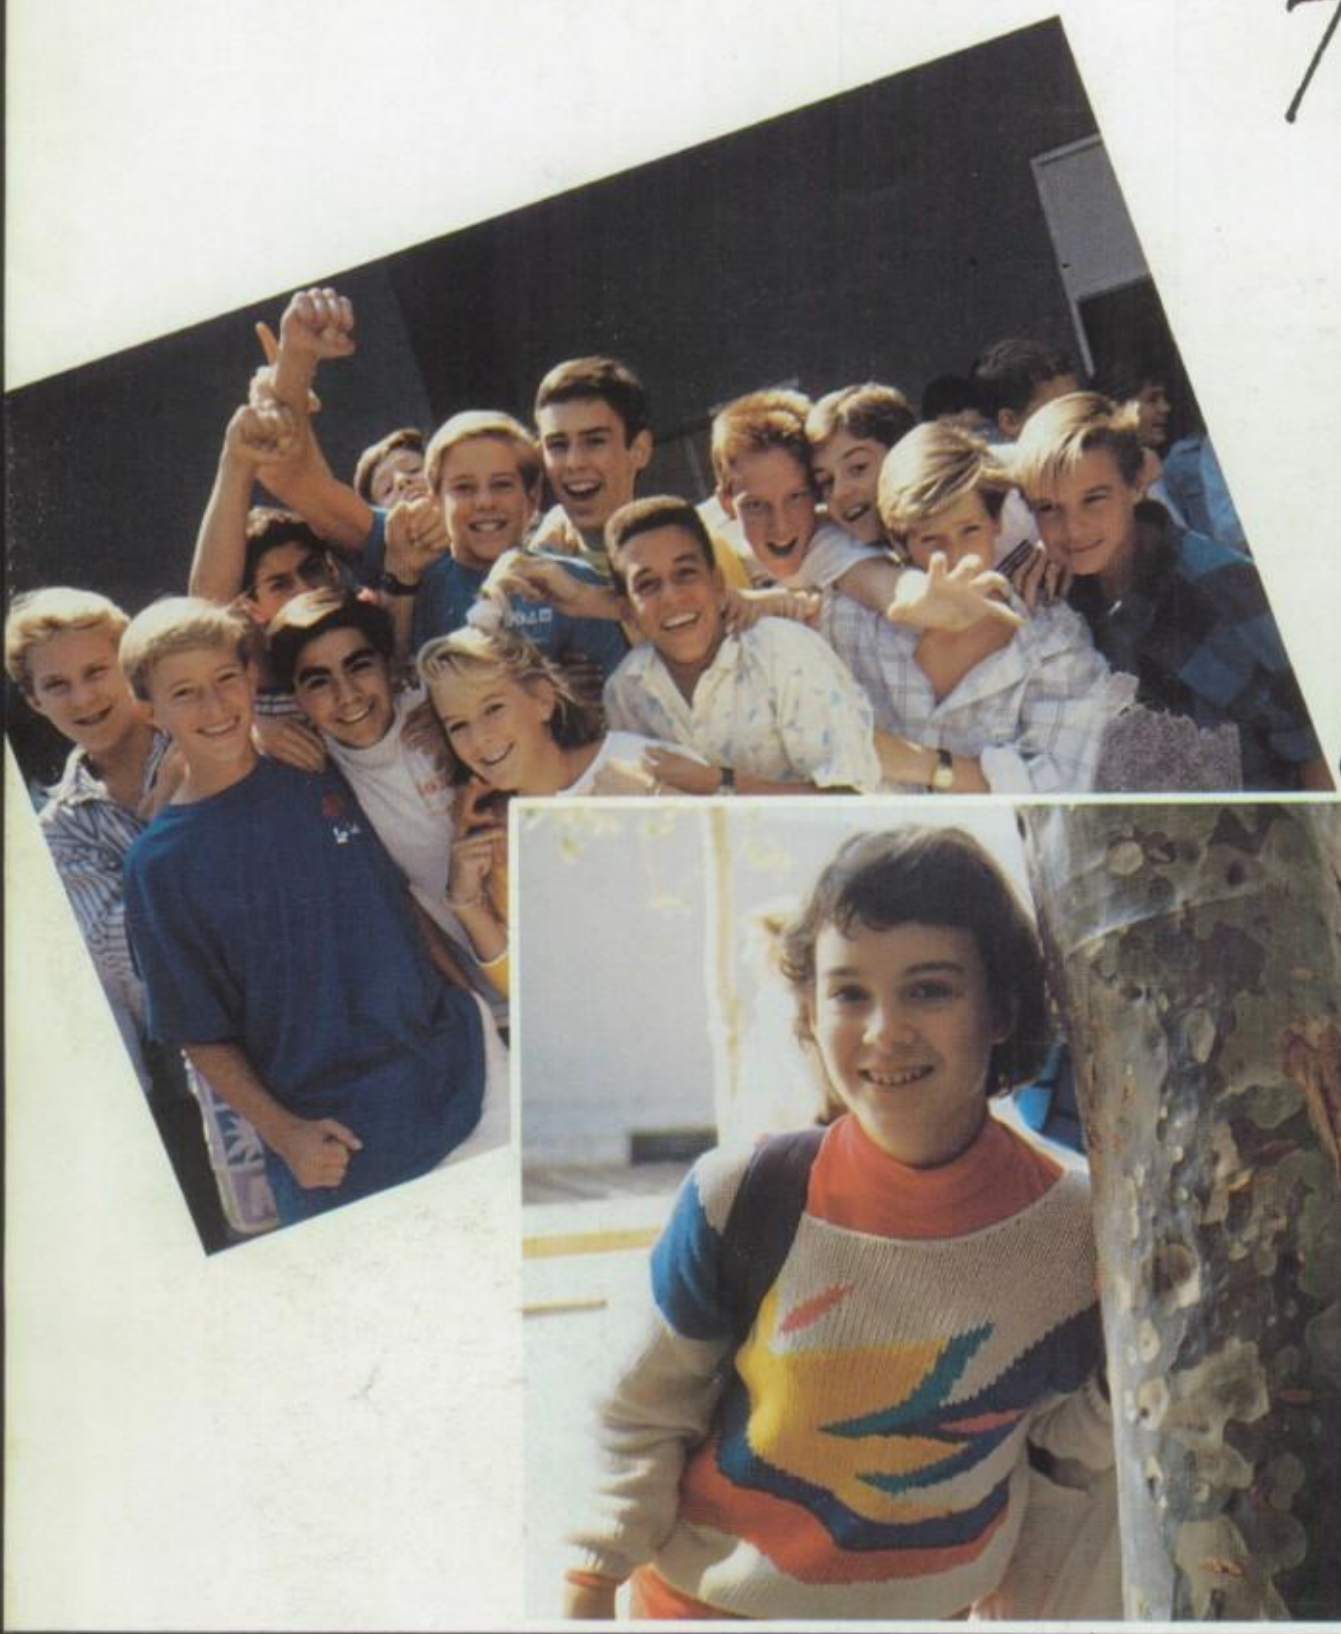
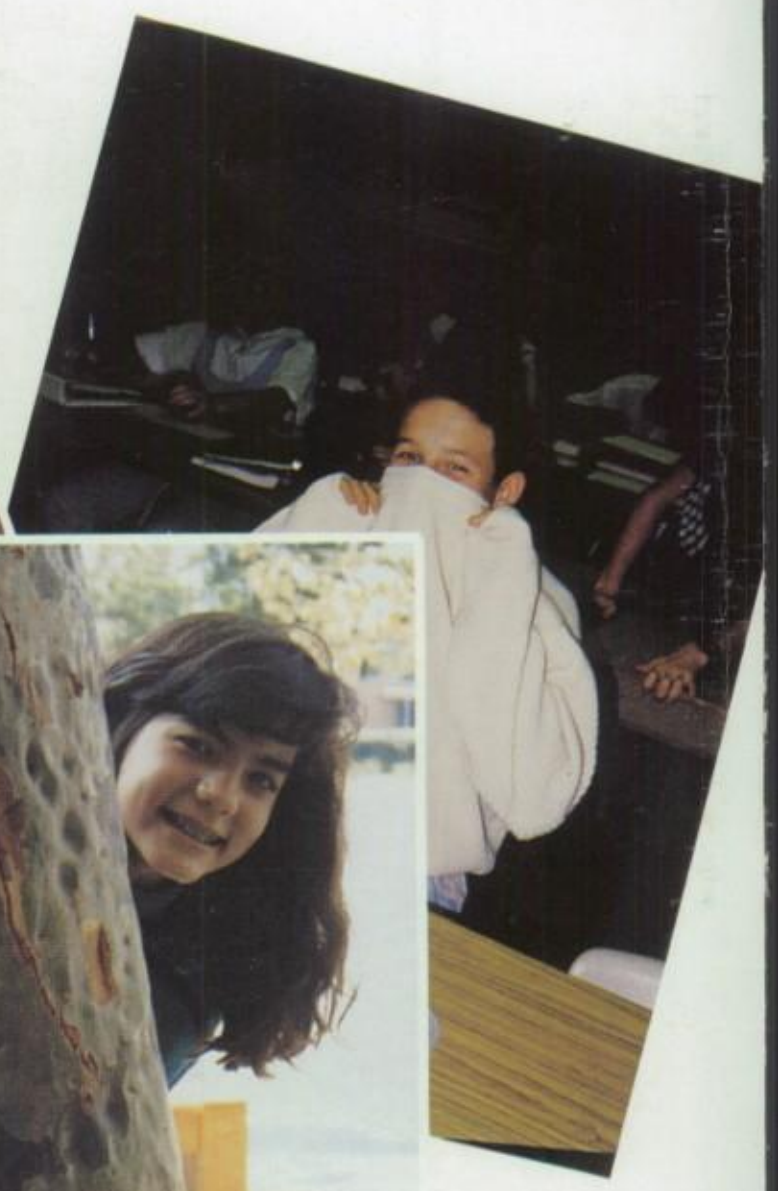




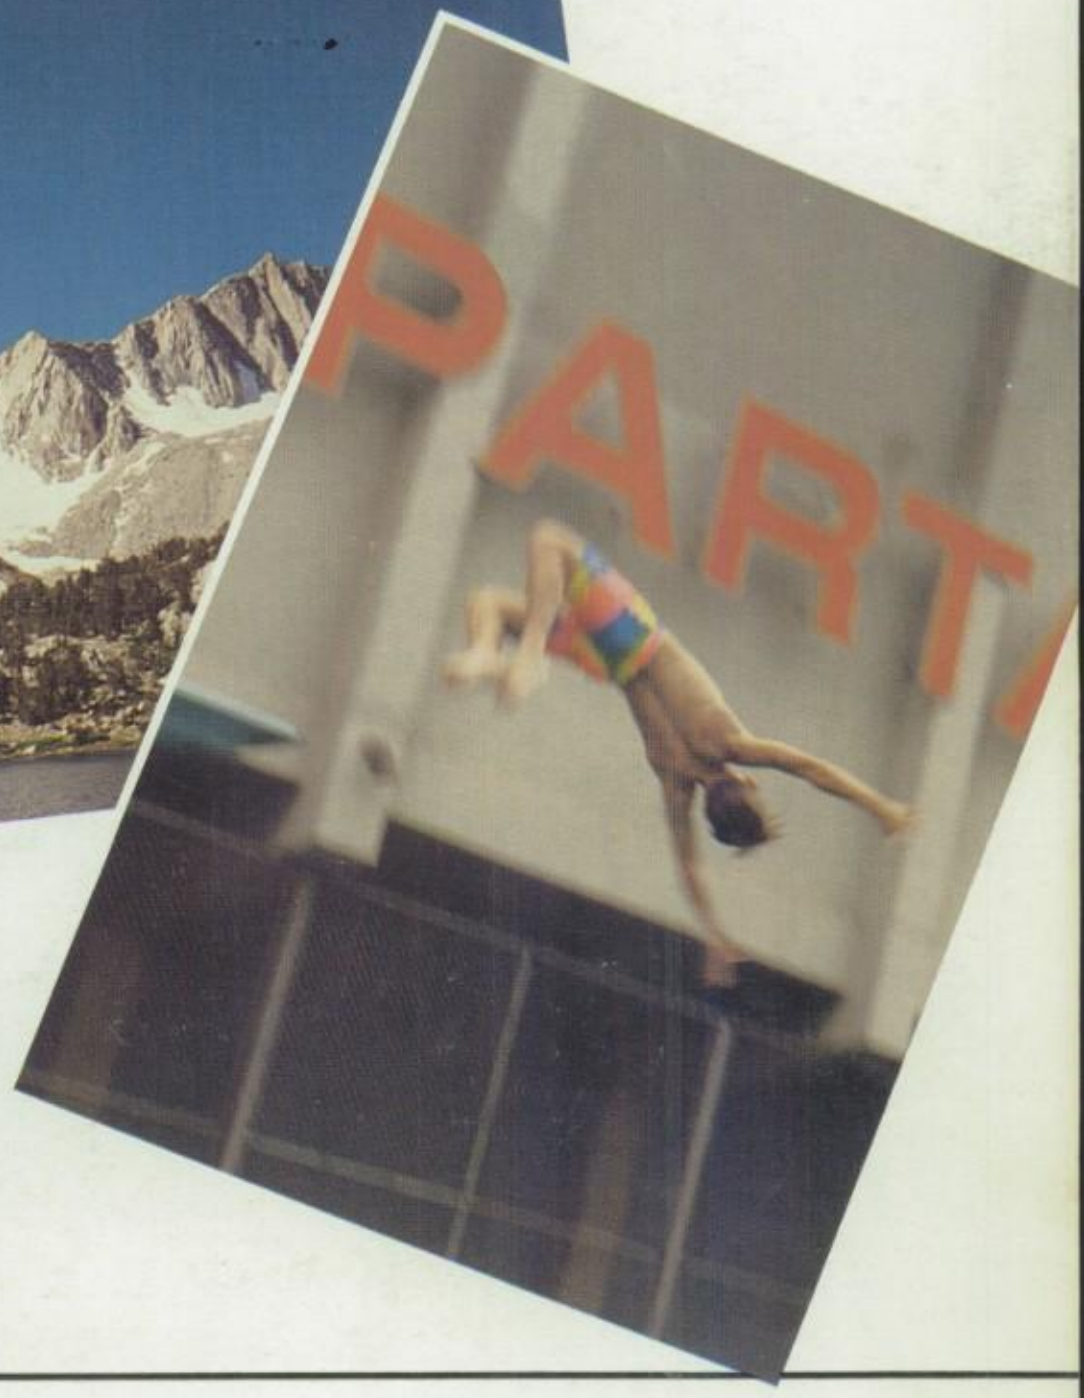
4	18	56
Student Life	Small Schools	Electives

Being a 7-8 student at LCHS offers new and exciting experiences. STUDENT LIFE includes passing period socializing, dances, assemblies and those first few weeks of a new school year.

School Within A School is the backbone of the 7-8 experience. The seventh grade schools are 1&2. The eighth grade schools are 3&4. Teams of four teachers are assigned to each small school.

7-8 students receive a wide variety of electives at LCHS. These electives range from foriegn languages to woodshop, from drama-choral to home economics. A unique exploratory elective program is also available to the 7-8 students.

GREAT CONTENTS



64 Activities

7-8 ACTIVITIES are sponsored and run by the 7-8 ASB. Activities include dress-up days, dances, ice cream sales and our new Spirit Day intramural program.

86 Yosemite

7-8 students have the opportunity to spend a week in February at the Yosemite Institute. Students that are chosen to attend find this experience one of the most rewarding during their 7-8 years at LCHS.

94 Sports

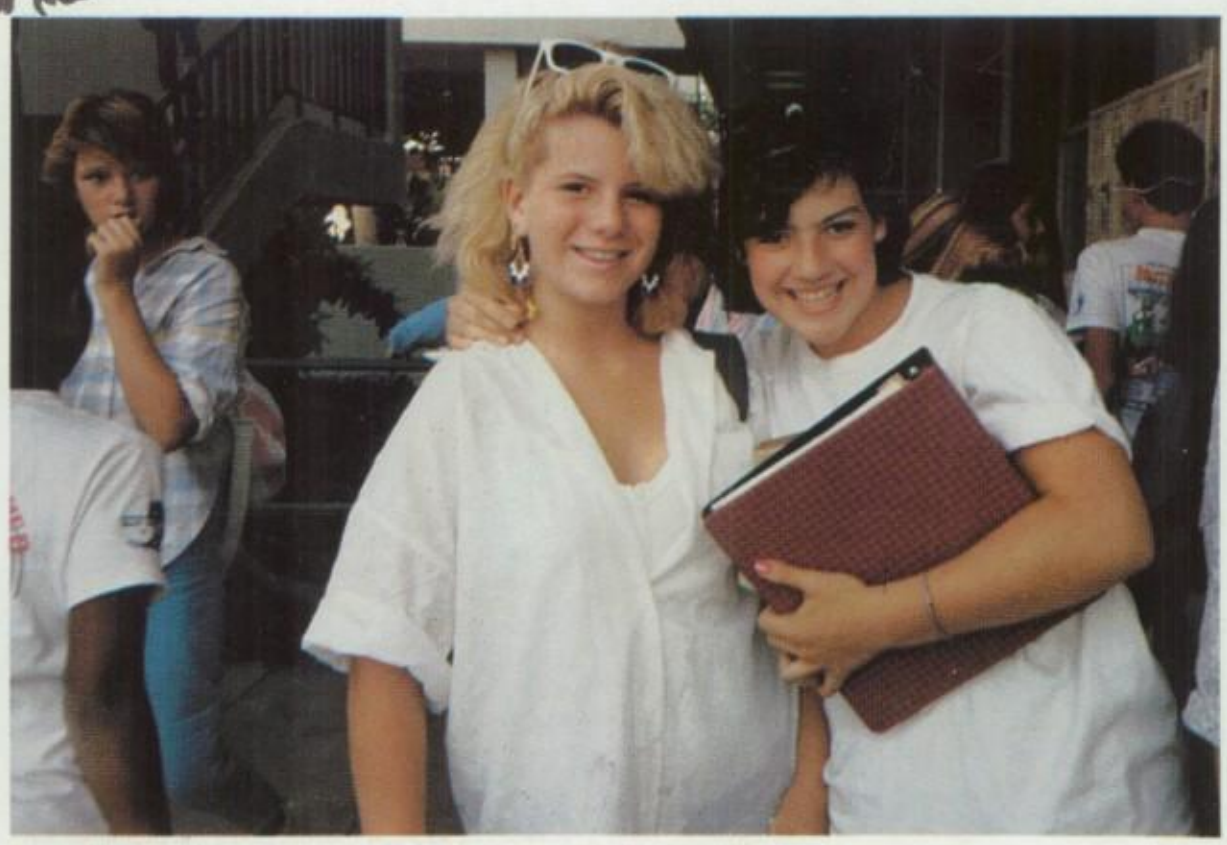
7-8 students are involved in a wide variety of physical education experiences. After school sports are also available for both boys and girls. The highlight of the year is the Turkey Bowl competition between the small schools.

BACK TO SCHOOL

"A return to LCHS means returning to old friends, and the making of new ones. The beginning of a new school year means finding classrooms, following schedules, opening lockers and finding your way around campus.

"Yesterday was the first day of school. I loved it. I got to see all of my friends and got a great locker. This school is great. But I may be very fat by the end of the year because of all the candy."

Jerry Murphy



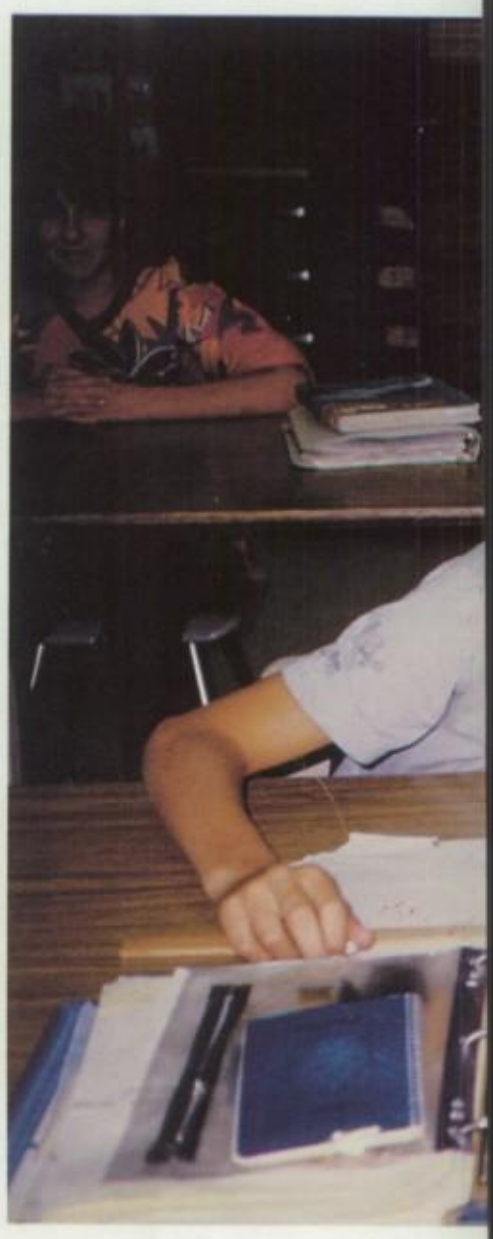
"The first day of school was mostly what I expected. I made a couple of friends, and the school wasn't that bad, I didn't like what I had for lunch and decided never to eat it again."
Michael Weingarten

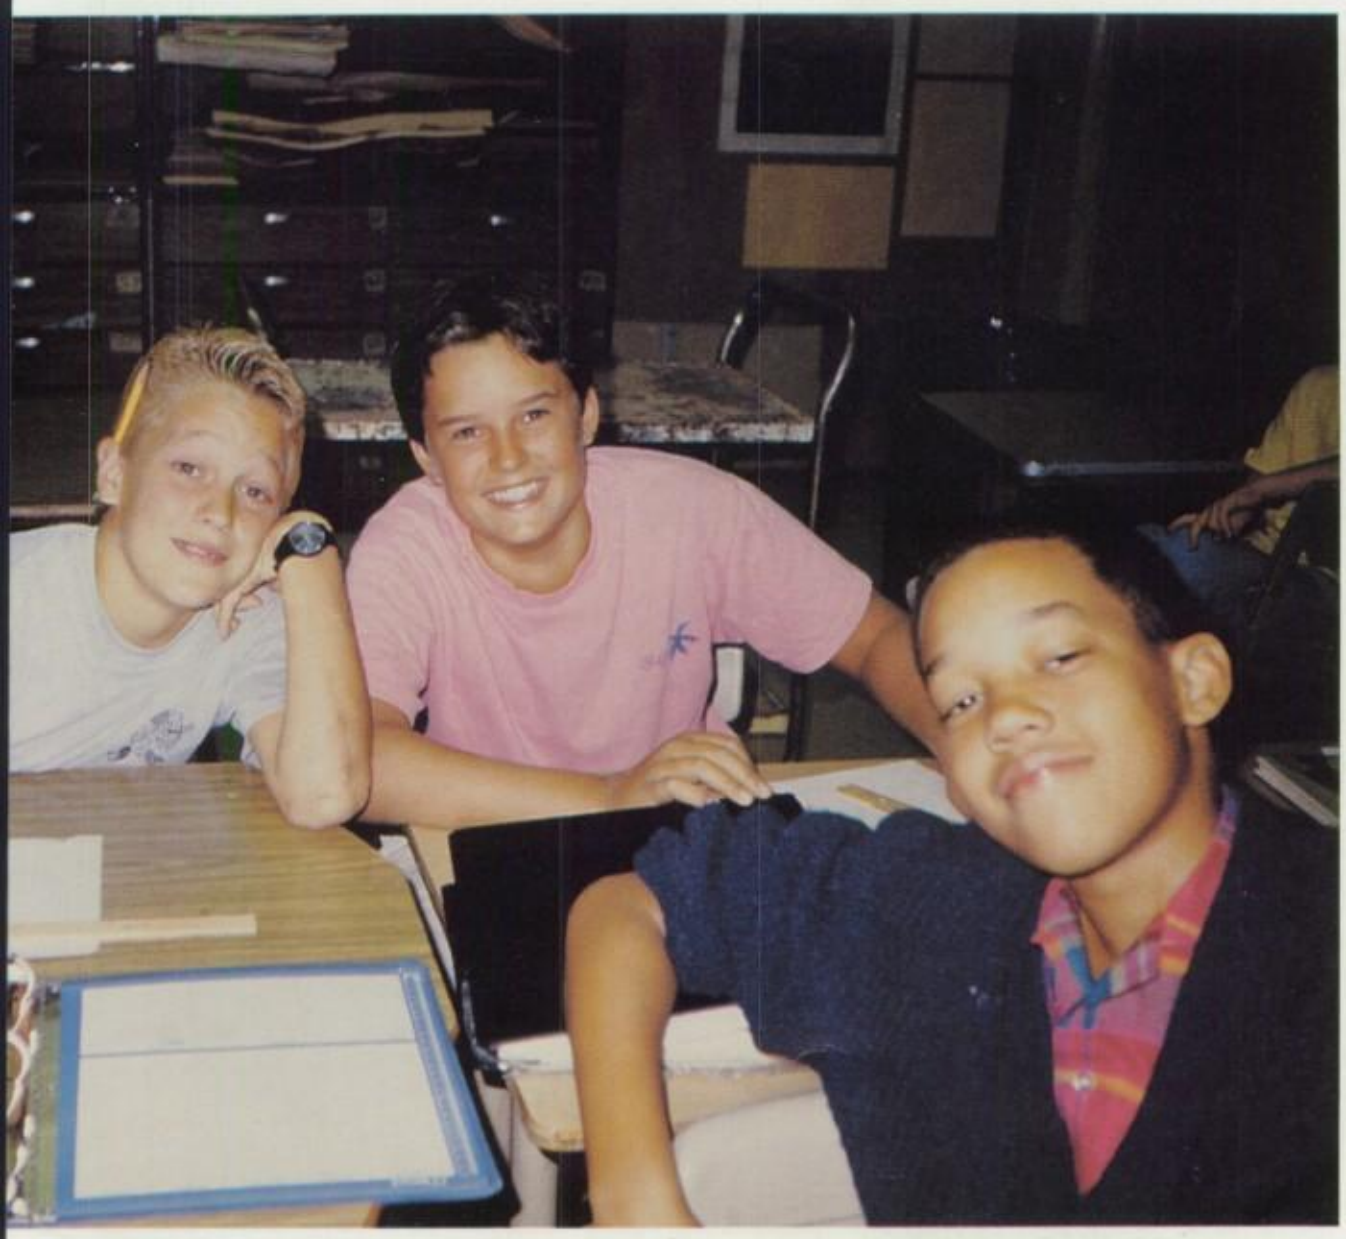
"It's weird to be at the high school, and in the 7th grade. I have had many funny experiences. For instance, I have a high locker and I couldn't get it open. So I put my books in my friends locker and when we got back from P.E., we realized she had locked her combination inside."

Sarah Brogerg

"Seventh grade is fun, but all the seniors are so big and strong. They haven't paid much attention to me so I guess they won't".

Jenna Castro





"It's a lot better at the high school than elementary school. The food is better and the people are a lot more grown up. It's kind of a weird feeling, being at the top of the school and then being at the bottom."

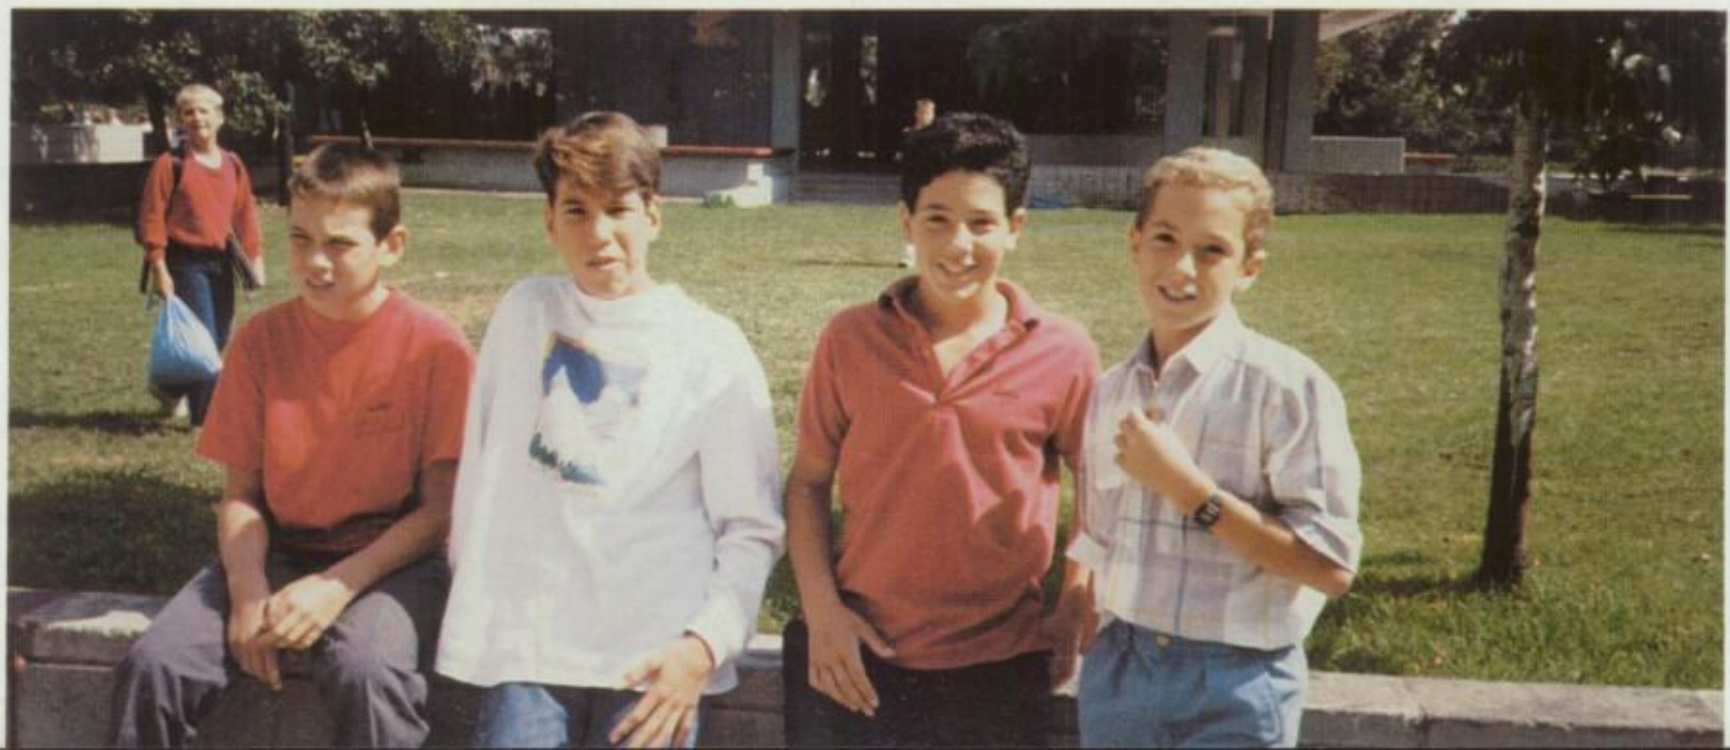
Vincent De Rosa

"My first day was great. I didn't bother with my locker at all that day. It was great to be back in school and meeting new people. At first I thought it was going to be hard but I was wrong. The second day went along very smoothly."

Dwight Barnes

"On the first day of school I was very busy and scared. First I could not find my classroom and I did not know what was going to happen next. My locker was a big pain. It would not open."

Michelle Warren



The first week of school . . . Now that wasn't so hard was it?

"Yesterday was the first day of school. I was really nervous! I just moved here about three months ago from Seal Beach. Boy, is it a change! I thought it was going to be a horrible day. Really, to tell the truth, it was a really neat day! I got to know a lot of nice kids."

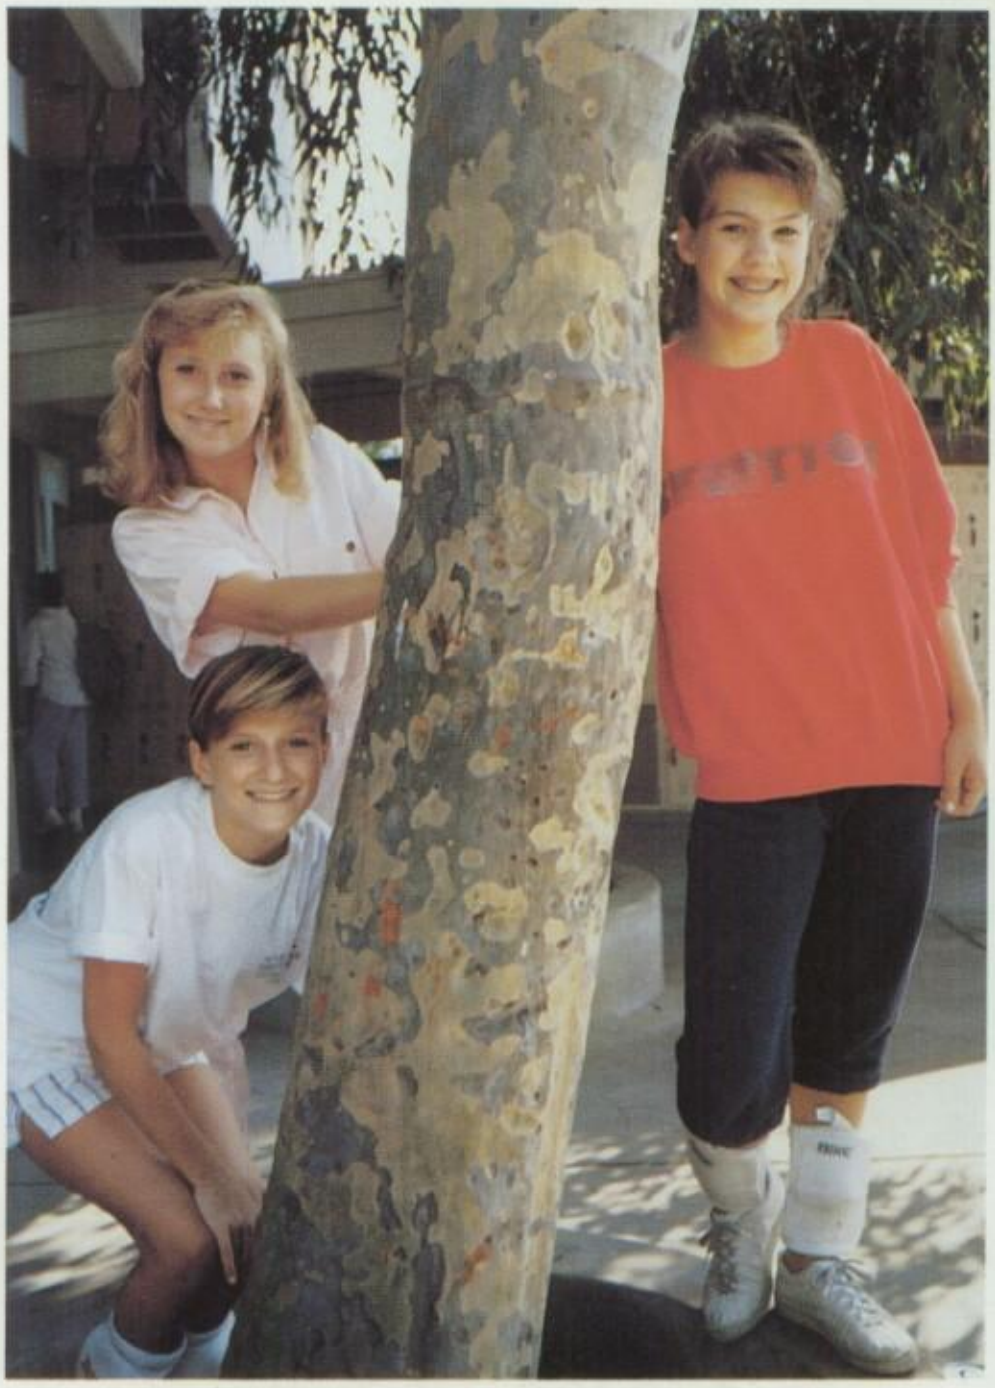
Ryan Beyer

ASB

7-8 ASB is responsible for all of the 7-8 activities throughout the year. ASB officers and Small School Presidents are elected each fall. ASB representatives are then elected from each 7-8 Social Science class and attend weekly lunch hour meetings.

This year's ASB officers are:
President- Jenny Mayer
Vice President-Sandy Ahn
Secretary-Jocelyn White
Treasurer- Kate Russell
Activities Director- Heather Blanche

School 1 President- Grahame Dicks
School 2 President- Michelle Stark
School 3 President- Jenny Adams
School 4 President- Debra Back



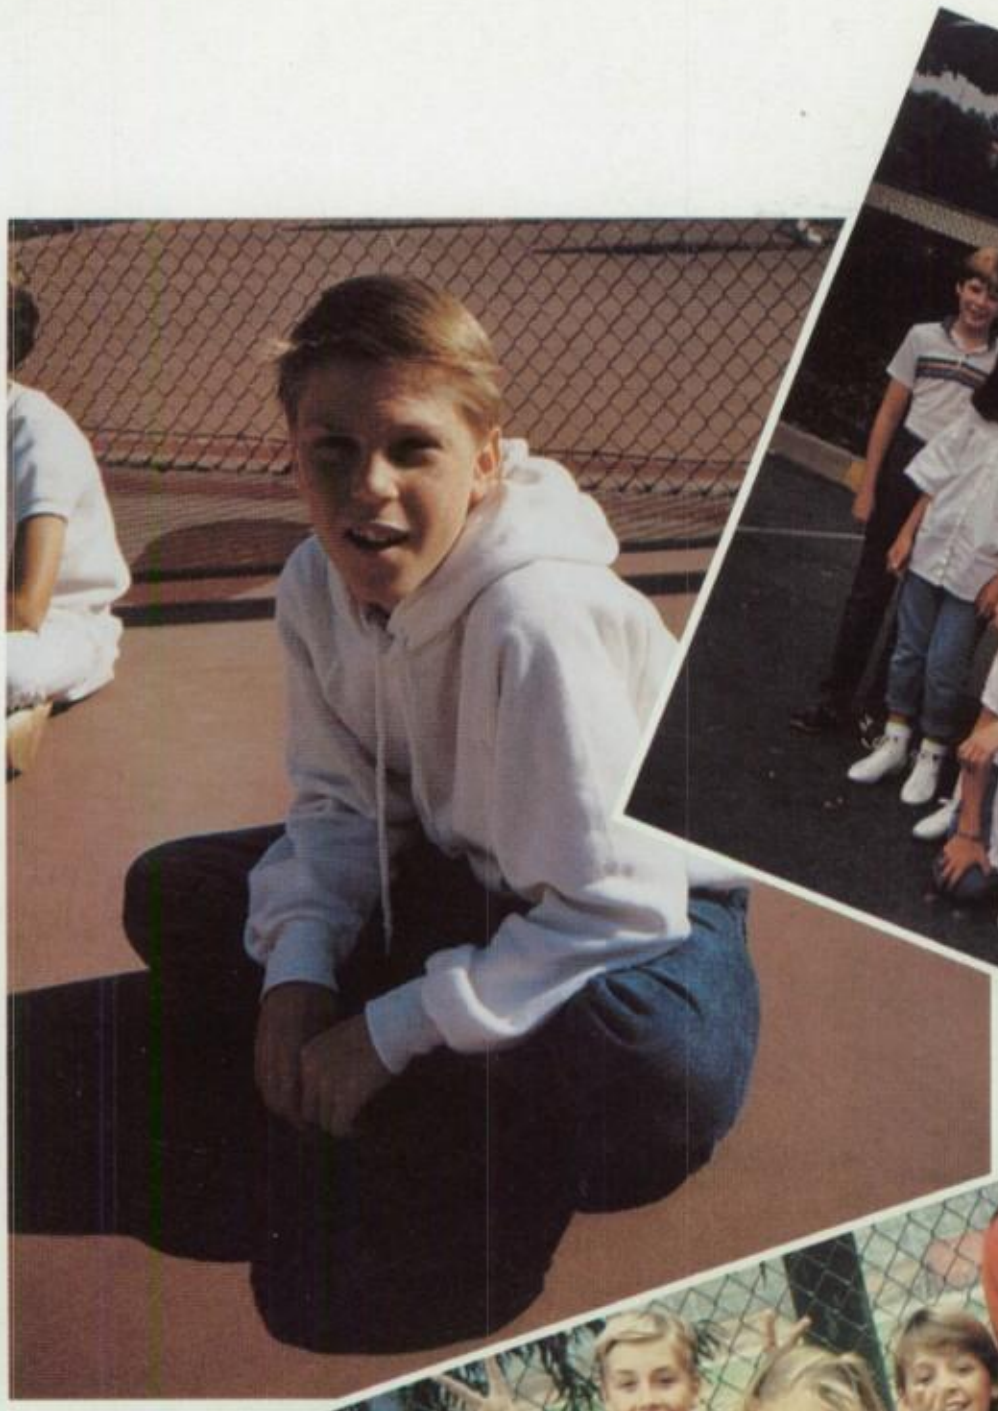
WELCOME BACK ASSEMBLY

The 1986-87 school year began with a Welcome Back Assembly presented by Principal Drew Meyer. School spirit and involvement soon became the key words for this year.

7-8 students will be enjoying a new intramural program this year. There will be weekly competitions between the small schools, ranging from big wheel races to spelling bees. Once a month each small school will wear its' school color to show their SPIRIT!!!

School 1 President Grahme Dicks cheers on the School 1 diving team during the first Spirit Day competition.

SPIRIT DAYS



SPIRIT DAY means weekly school vs school competitions. This year's first spirit day competition was diving, followed by a tug of war, and a big wheel race.

NERD DAY

Chosen as best NERD of the day was Mark White. His red t-shirt labeled NERD helped him to win the lunch time competition.

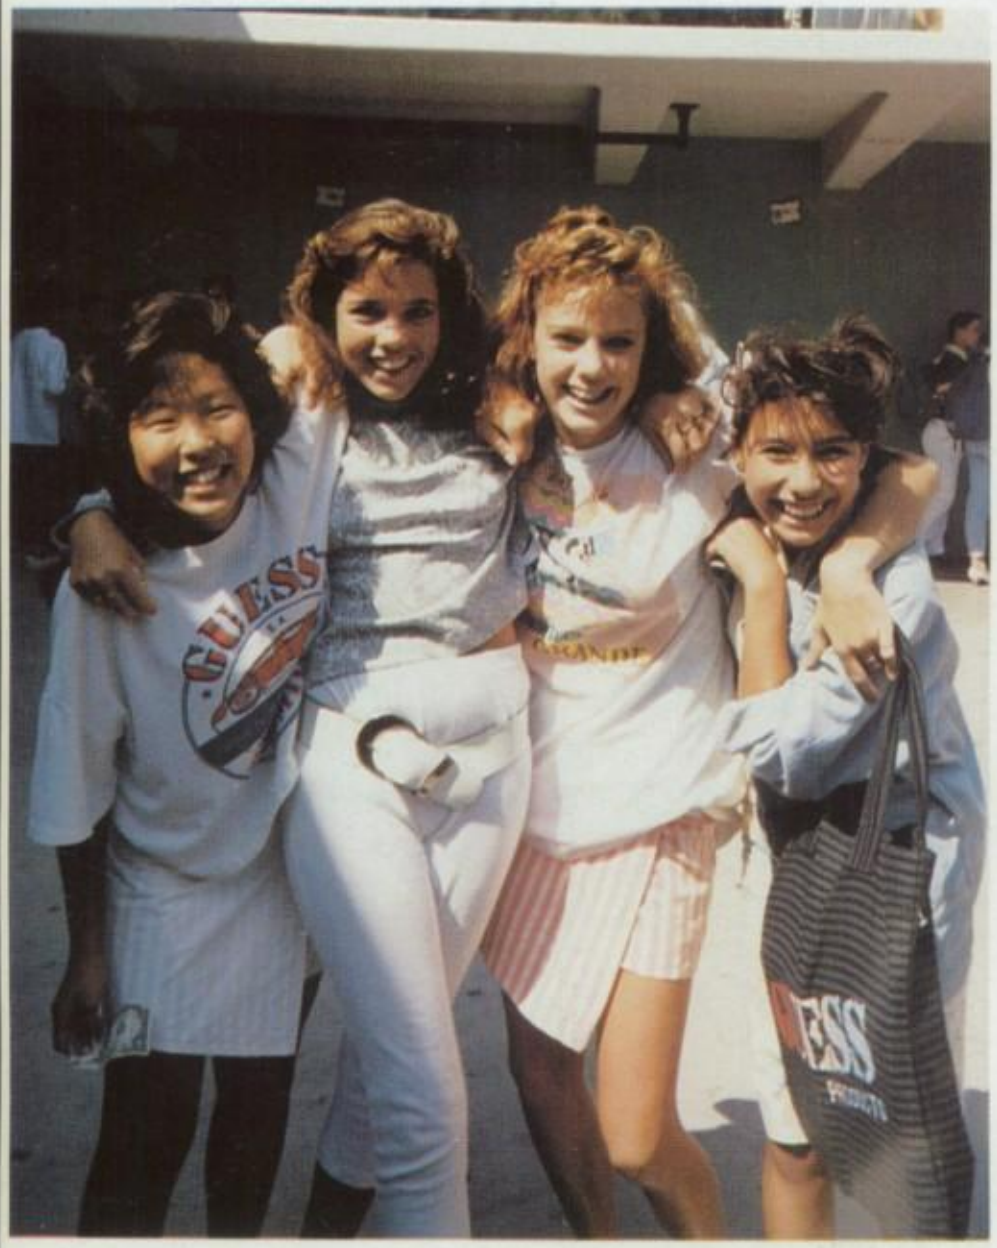
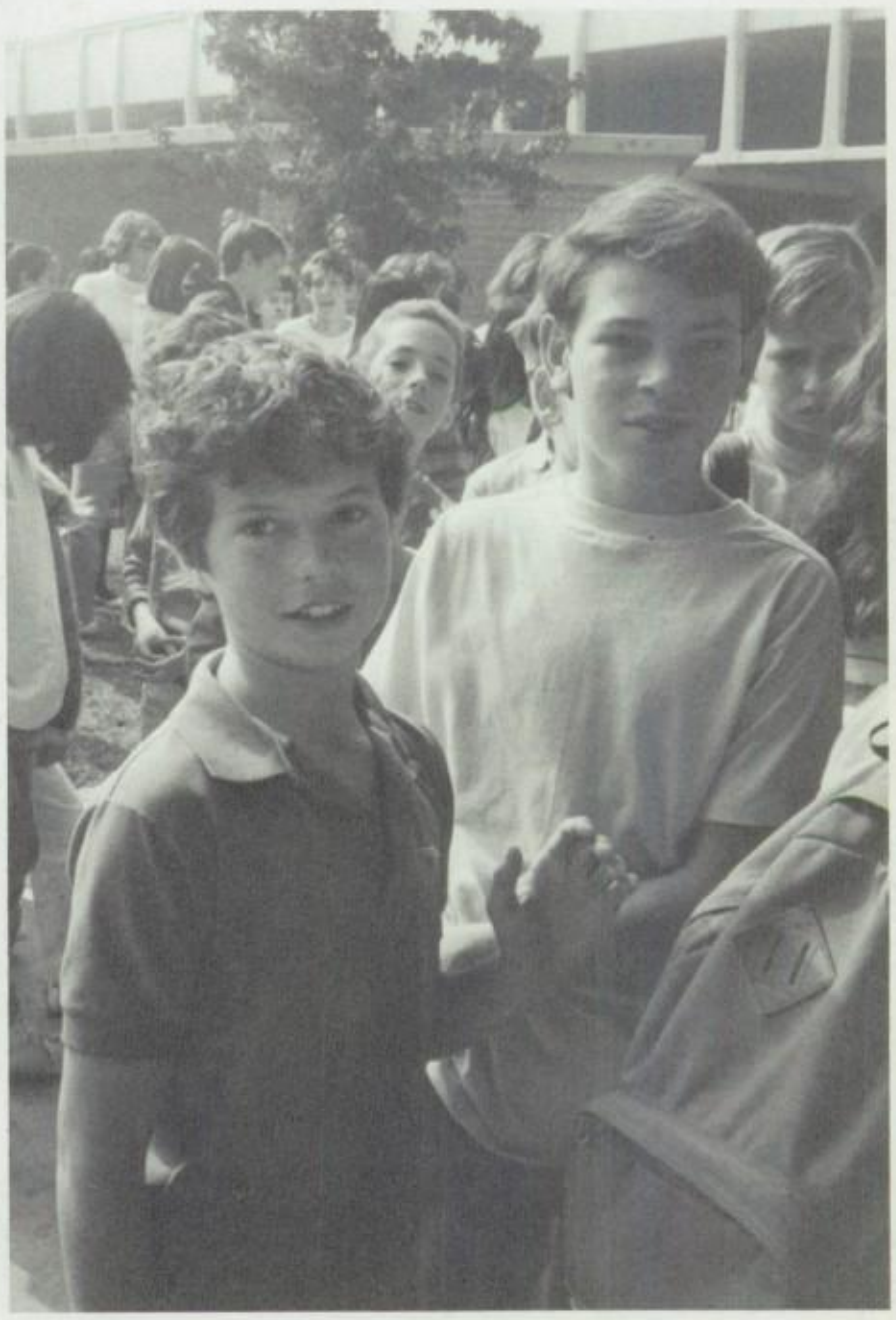
WELCOME BACK DANCE

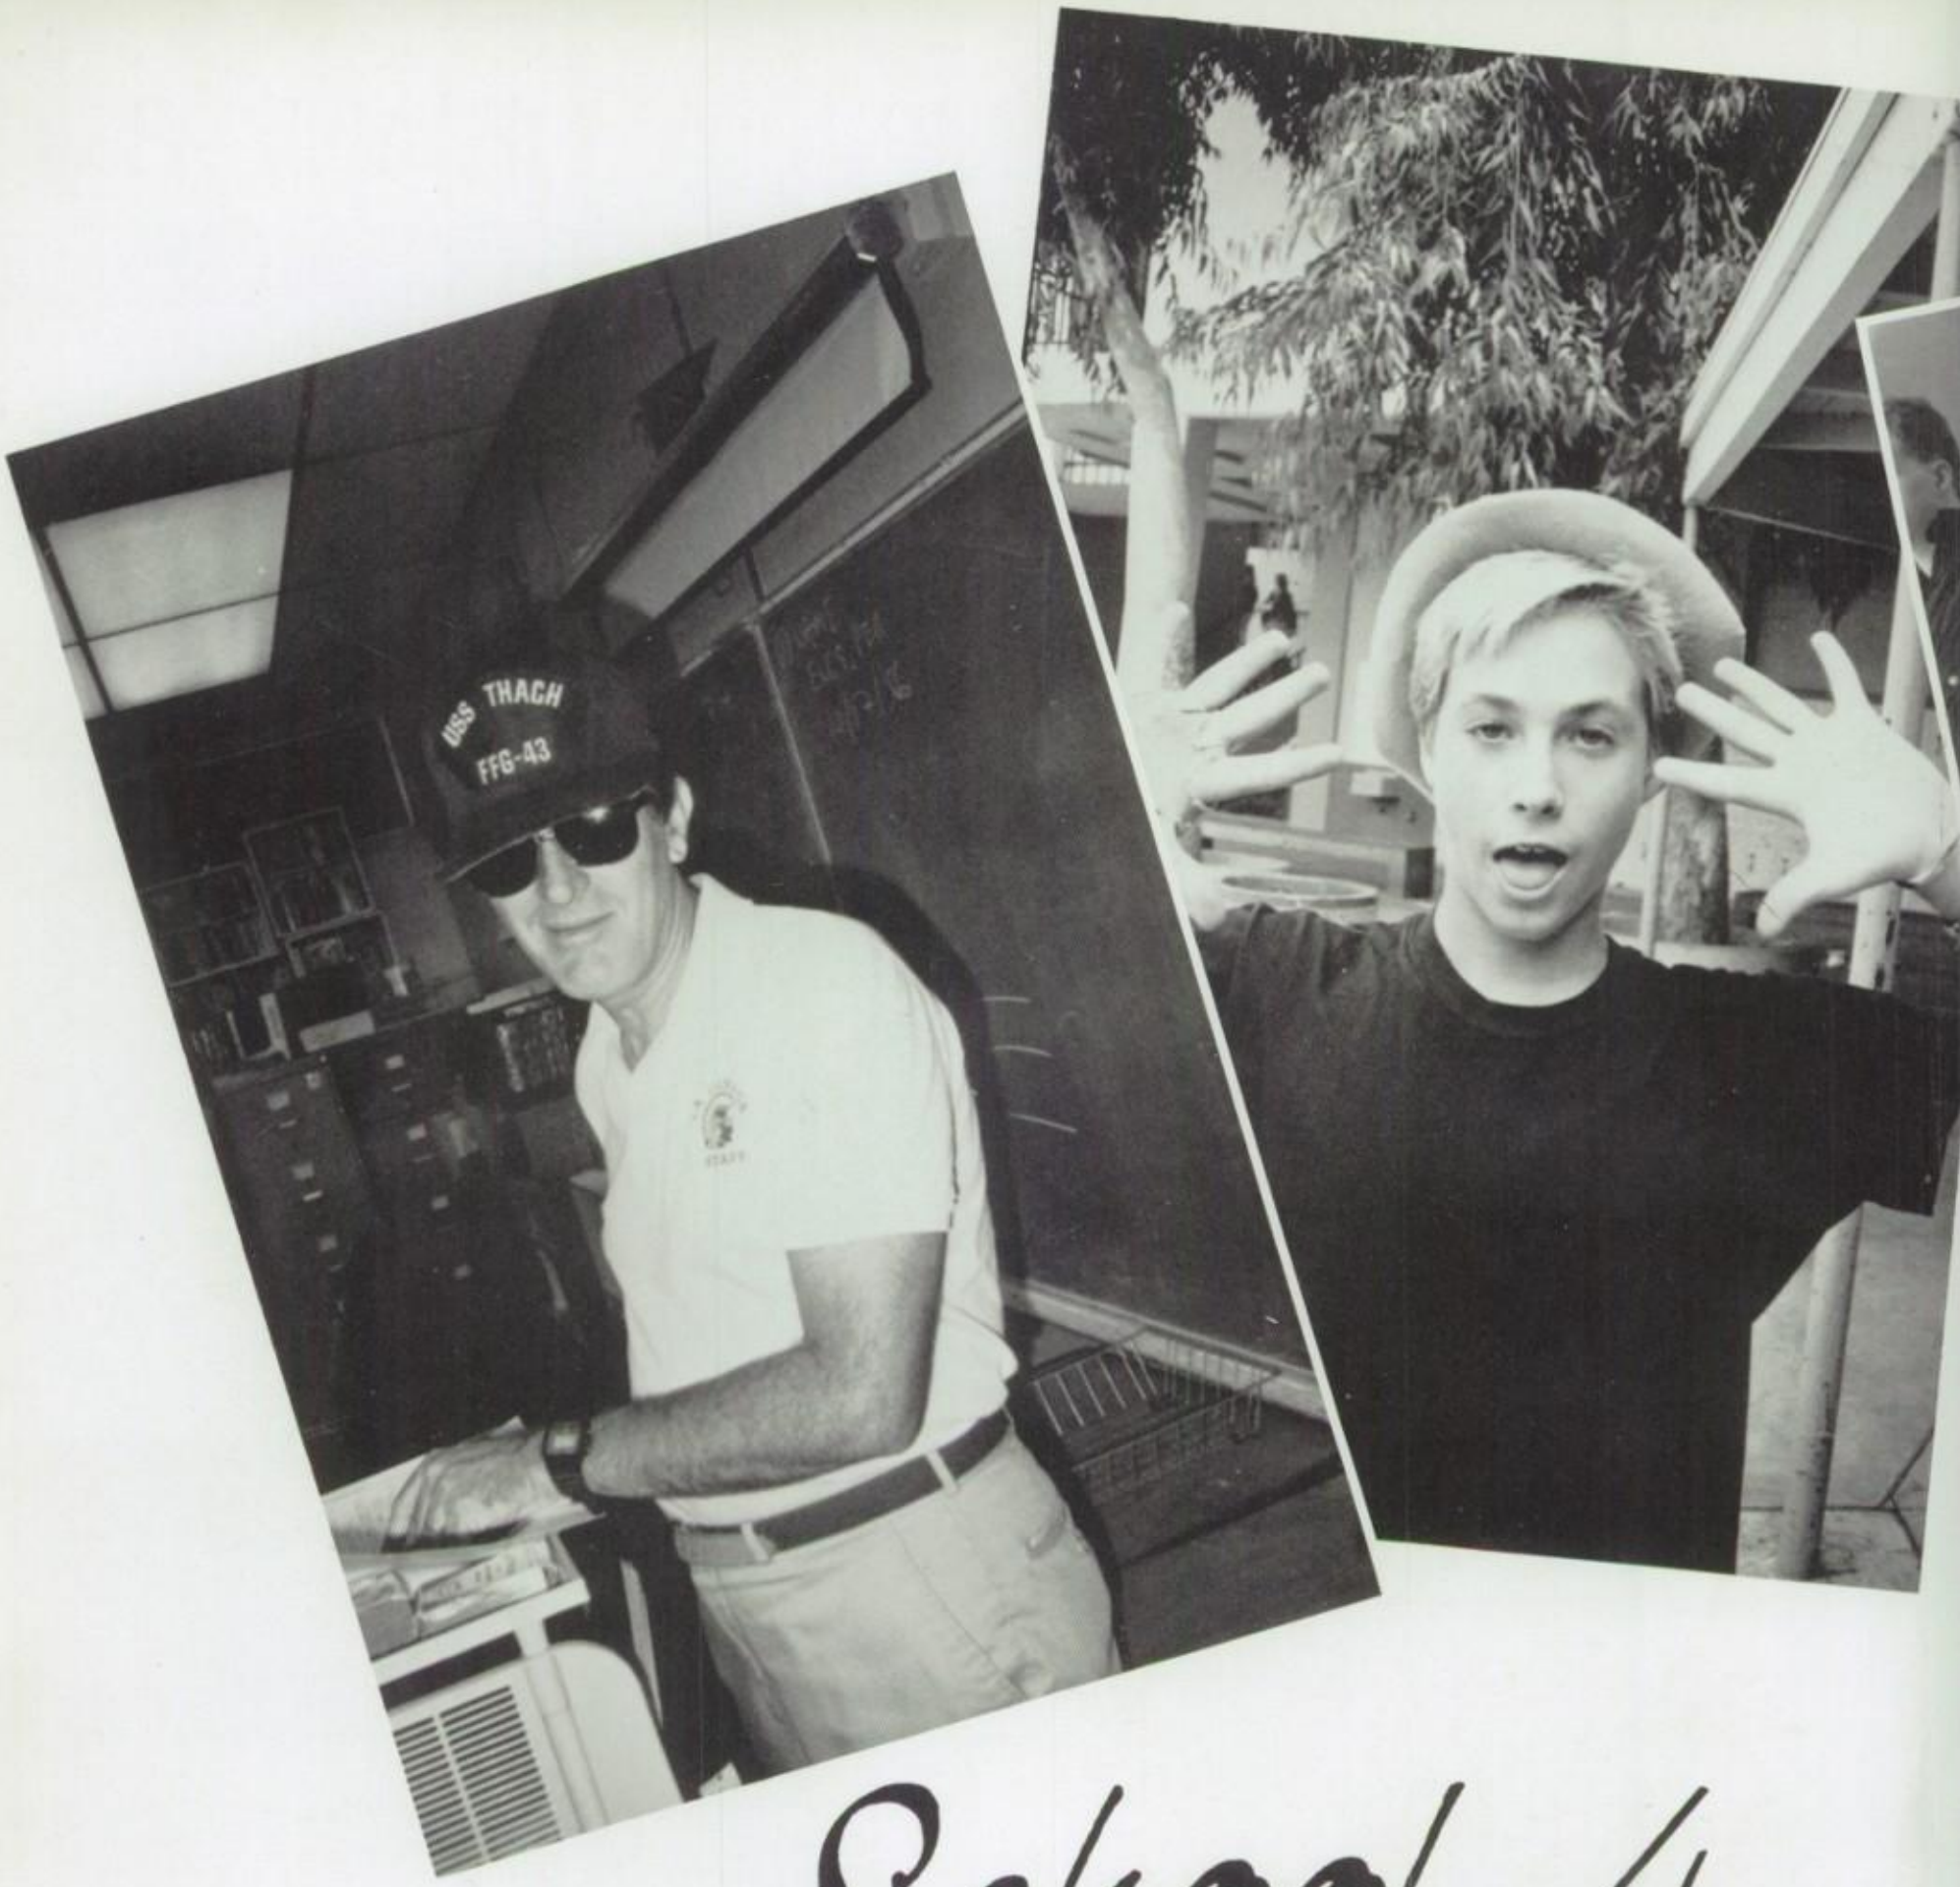


The first week of school ended with a Welcome Back Dance in the cafeteria. It was time to kick up your heels and have a good time. The first week wasn't so bad after all!!

LUNCH TIME—A NEW 7-8 EXPERIENCE

LOTS of food and friends make lunch break fun!





School 4

School Within A School is the foundation of the 7-8 program. The eighth grade consists of Schools 3 and 4. The seventh grade consists of Schools 1 and 2. Each Small School has a team of teachers. School 4 teachers are Mrs. Bal, Mrs. Nicoll and Mr. Thach. Mr. Kumano, Mr. Lipofsky and Mr. Lukehart are responsible for the eighth grade science program.

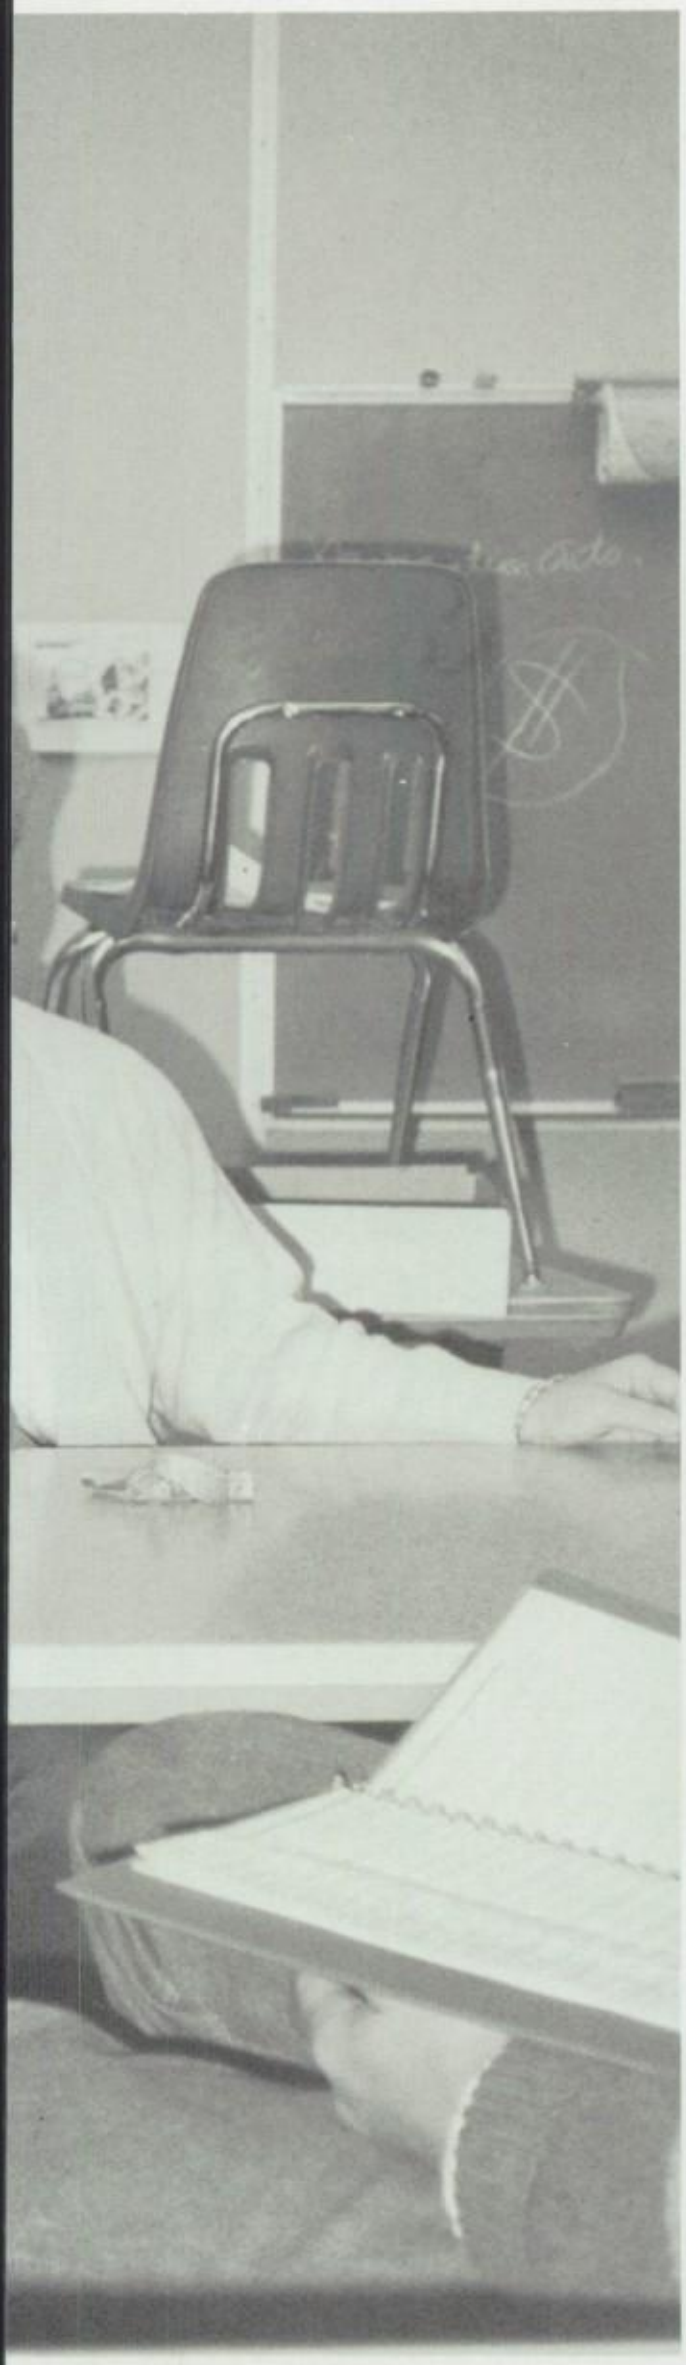
STUDENT AND FACULTY SPIRIT

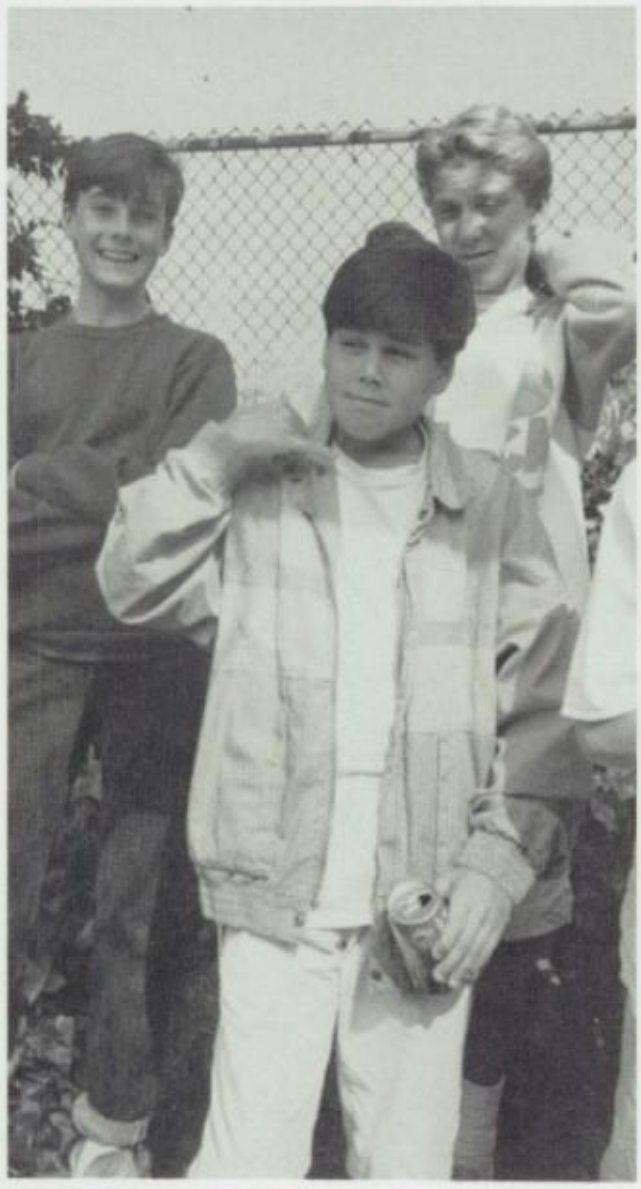
JUST THE RIGHT COMPOSITE OF PEOPLE AND A LAID BACK ATMOSPHERE ENHANCES LEARNING

Both Mrs. Nicoll and Mr. Thach are well known for their support, enthusiasm and spirit. Mrs. Nicoll's room is always open to those who need a shoulder or some encouragement. Mr. Thach is always the teacher who goes the extra mile. Here he experiences a close shave during spirit day.

Dear Christel,
Too bad I didn't get to have any classes w/ you!
Maybe next year. Have a fun summer.
Lisa Anglone



Shauna Smith, Julie Breckheimer and Jeannie Taylor share a soft drink and a few chuckles during spirit fun at lunch.

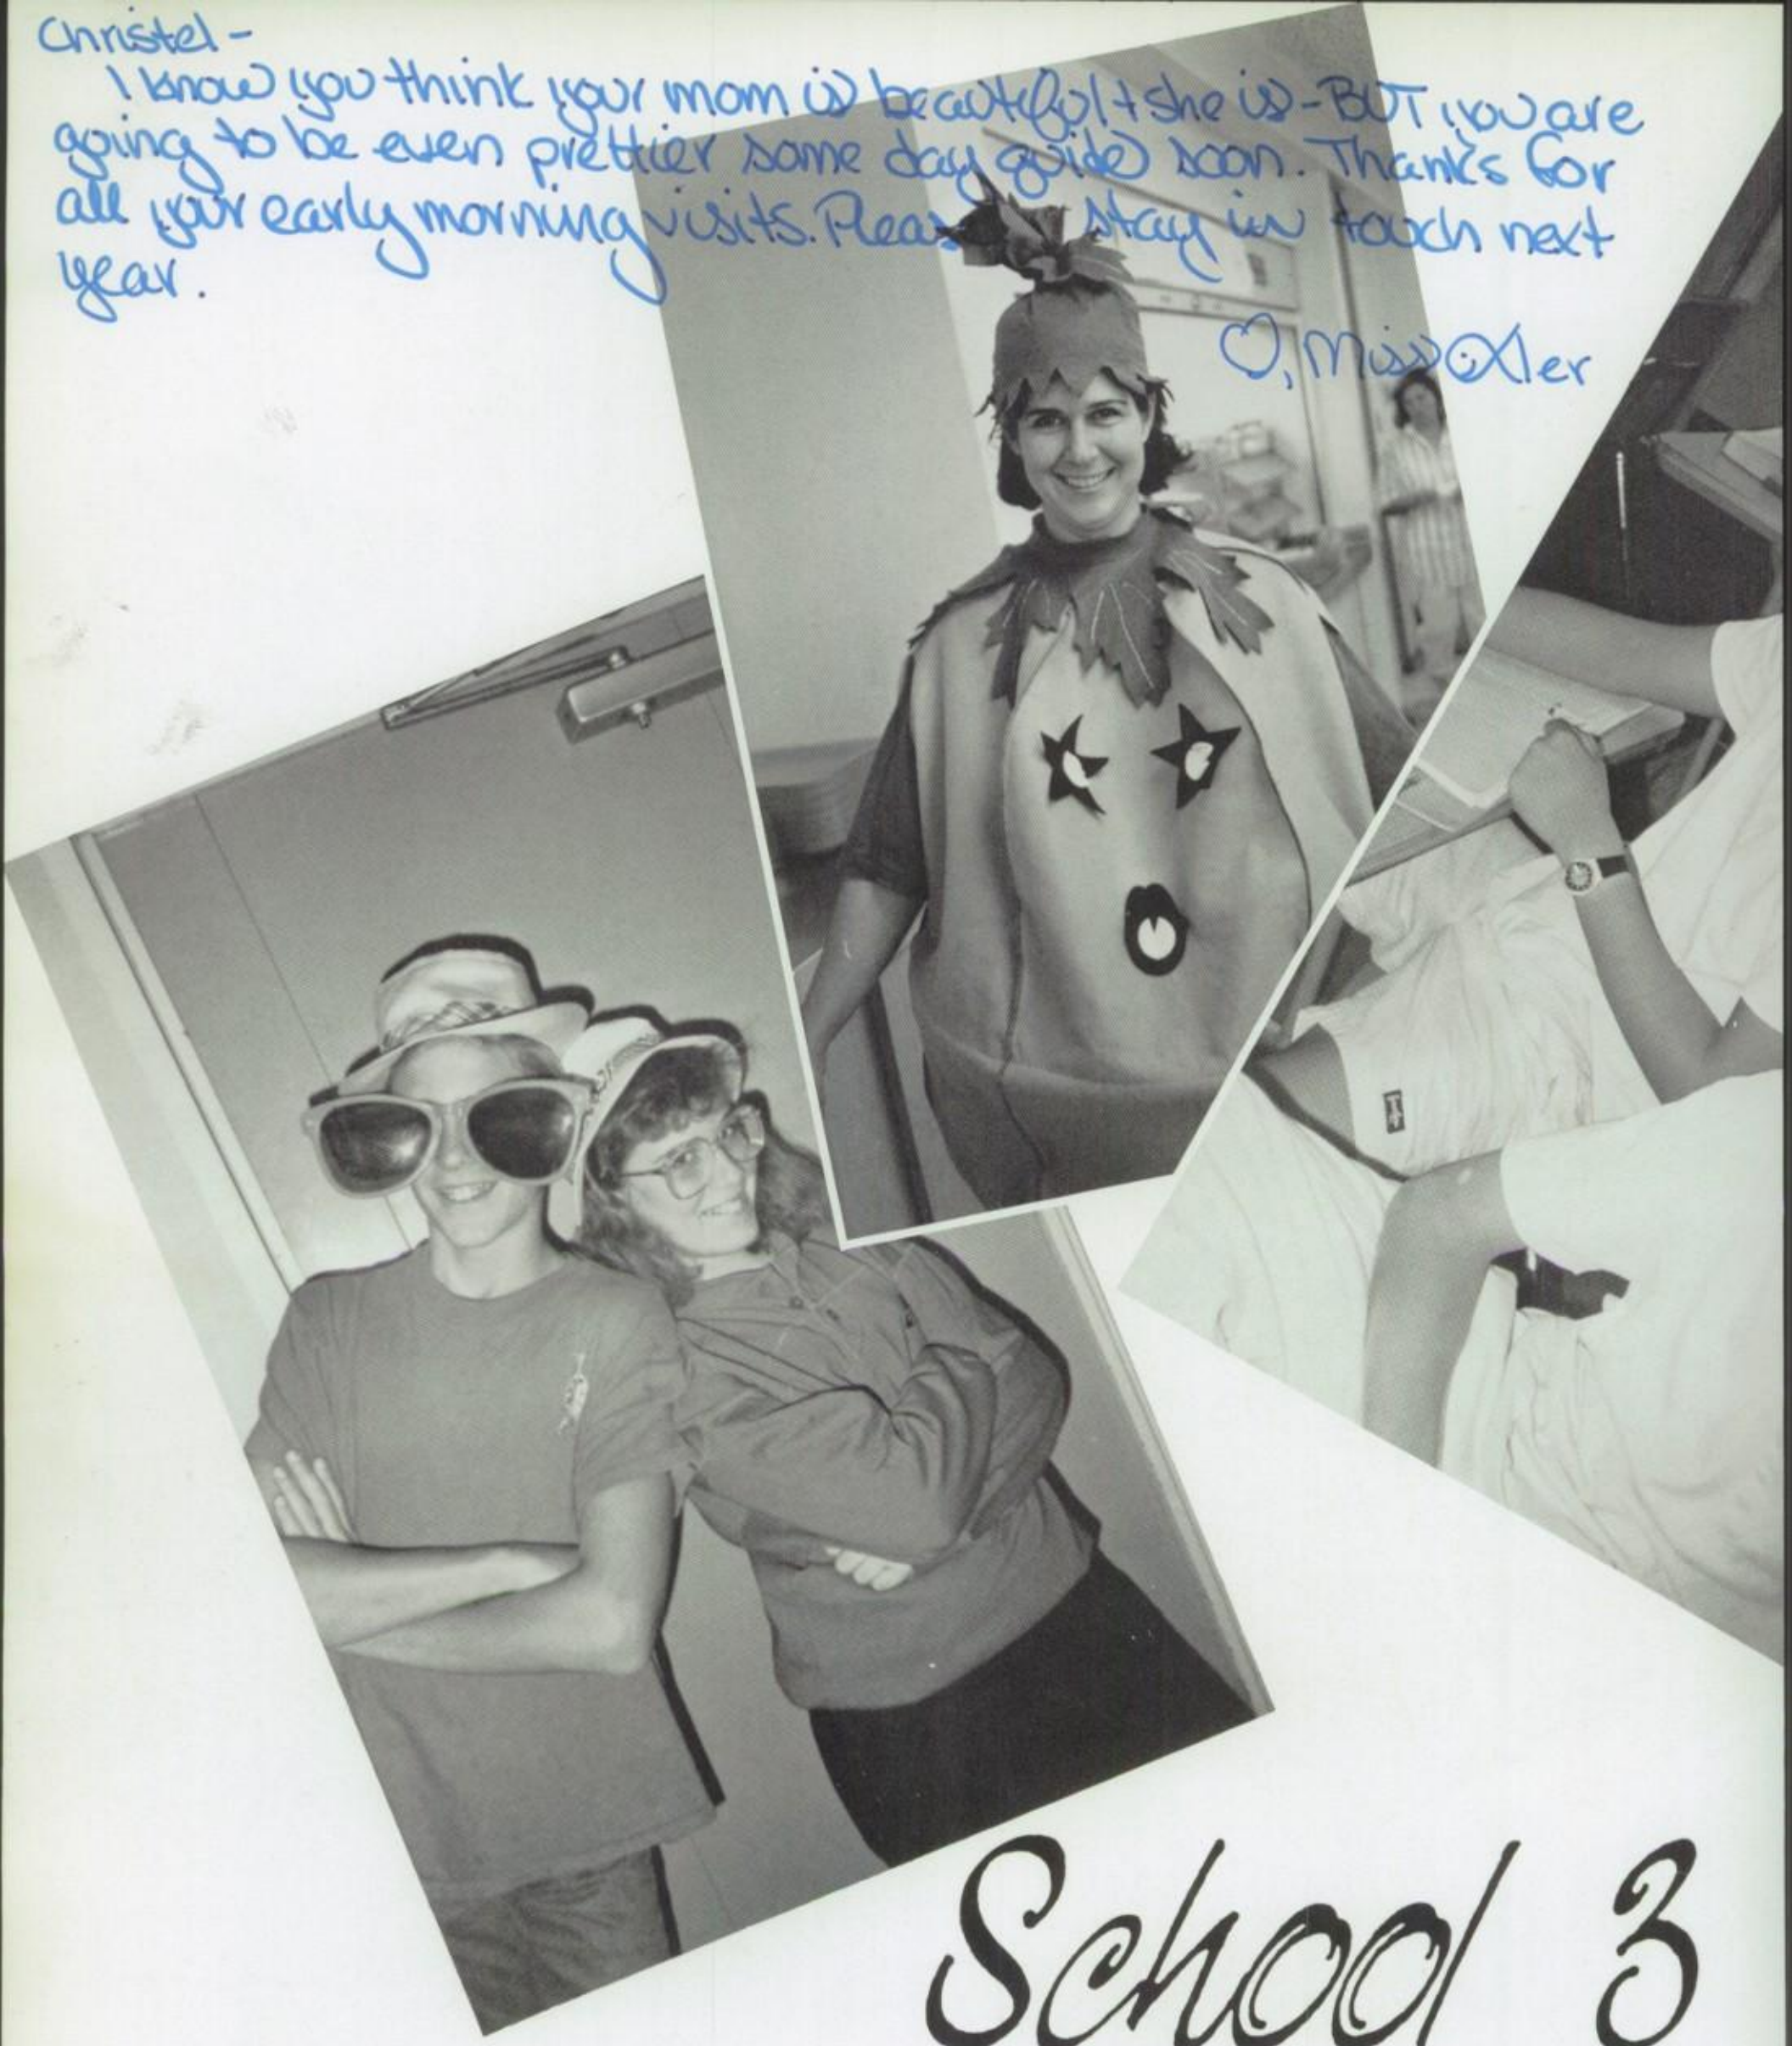


Warren Merrifield, Alex Dombrowski and Jeff Simon watch the close shave.

Megan Swan can't believe her eyes as School 4 wins a spirit competition, or is that just a big smile for the camera?

Christel -
I know you think your mom is beautiful & she is - BUT you are going to be even prettier some day quite soon. Thanks for all your early morning visits. Please stay in touch next year.

♡, Miss Oller



School 3

School 3 teachers are Miss Fisher, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Morgan. Here Miss Fisher shows her School 3 spirit on Halloween dress up day. School 3 students share in the fun on Hat, Tie and Shades day and show their School 3 spirit in the classroom as well as at lunch.

School 2

Becoming a seventh grader at LCHS is a new and exciting experience. School 2 teachers help make this transition from elementary school an easy one. School 2 teachers are Mr. Kissel, Mr. Weaver and Mrs. Venit. Seventh graders also enjoy a semester of science with Mr. Lipofsky and a semester of art with Mrs. Sanderson.

Seventh graders learn many new things during their first year at LCHS. School 1 teachers help students learn the skills necessary to become successful high school students. School 1 teachers are Mrs. Miller, Mr. Schaafsma and Mrs . Schopflin. Mr. Lipofsky began the school year with School 1, pictured here in fine School 1 spirit. School 1 students will finish the year in art with Mrs. Sanderson.

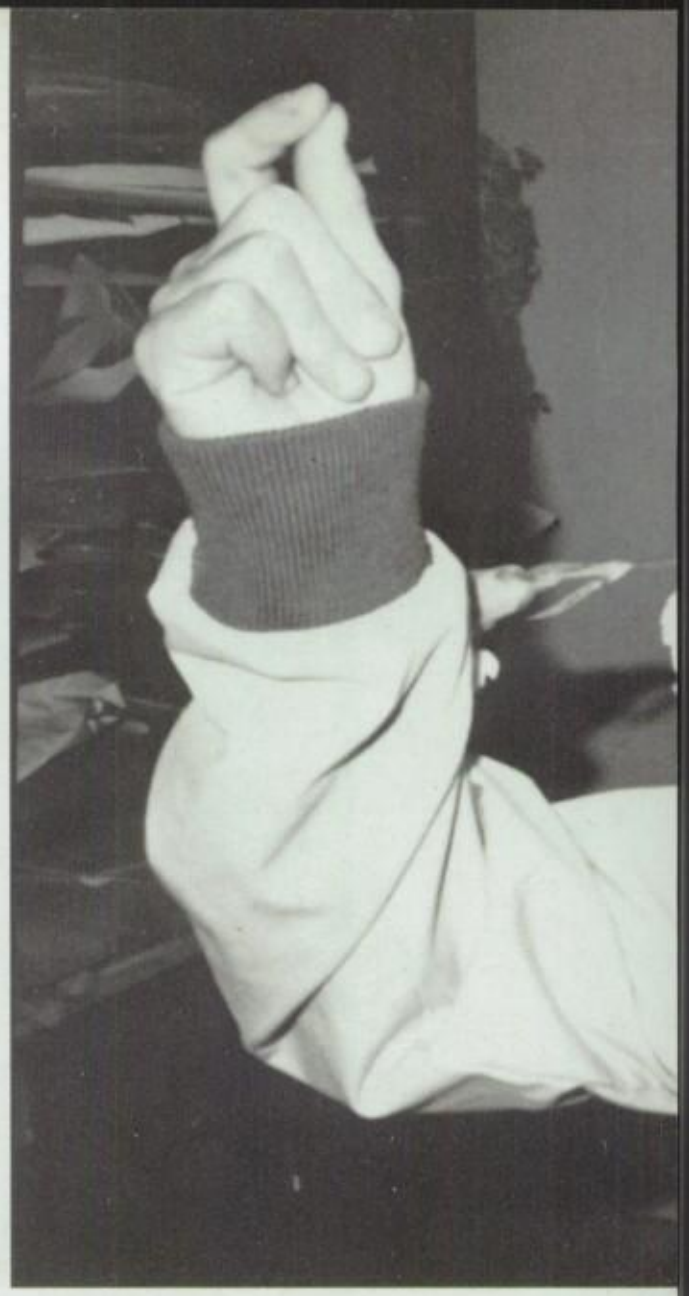
School One students celebrate Dress Up Day.

School One Students show their stuff in the classroom and a little tough stuff on dress up day.

HITTING THE BOOKS AND SOME ANTICS

Top notch carnation grams delivered to the classroom, hats, shades and costumes all add to optimum learning situations.



SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

Chris Anderson and Dwight Barnes are the happy recipients of carnation grams. Both blushed a little when flowers were delivered to the classroom. It was a Freshmen Class fund raising event and the seventh grade girls thought it was a great idea! The 7-8 classes joined in making each other happy as well as the Freshmen Class. Below, Denny Sterndahl shows off his pirate costume on Halloween.

Crystal,
Have an awesome summer. You're a great person.
Love Jennifer Likens

Crystal,
The years almost over yah!
But next year almost started Boo! Oh well enjoy the rest of your SUMMER while it lasts!
See ya next year

Michelle Stark gets so excited over hats and shades day she just plain fell off her chair.

Hats and shades day was the big and small of it as shown by Mark White, biggest hat and Adam Gunther in propeller beanie.

Learning Lessons

"Yesterday school started. Summer ended fast didn't it?!"

Eric Boyd

"This school is bigger than my other school. It has tennis courts and a lot of other stuff. Some of the teachers are nice too."

Stuart Manley

"In P.E. we're going to be swimming for three weeks. I hope its not cold."

Tiffany Johnson

"I Saw my brother at school today. He was with his friends. He looked happy about something."

Missy Kalb

PUT ON A HAPPY FACE

School Two students and teachers have shared a great year filled with a few jokes, upsets, growth and adjustments. What a great experience it has been.

"I hope I pass seventh grade. See you in June.""

Eric Whitman

"Sixth Graders should ask a lot of people what L.C. is like so they can get ready."

Chad Walter

Chad Walter and Melissa Ardoolina show big smiles. School is a pretty happy place.

Stephanie Smith, Brian Craig, Sheryl Miller, Ashlee Givens and Jason Weber share a few smiles and contemplate seventh grade truisms.

Electives

The seventh and eighth grade programs provide a wide variety of electives. These include German, Spanish, Exploratory programs of study skills and computers, orchestra band, choral, drama, woods, home economics and advanced computers for eighth grade.

The teachers providing these outstanding classes are Mrs. Hamre, Mr. Jordan, Mrs. Lynn, Miss Morres, Mrs. Venit, Mr. Kissel, Miss Marsteller, Mrs. Lievre and Mr. Despard.

From computers and home economics to theatre and the arts.

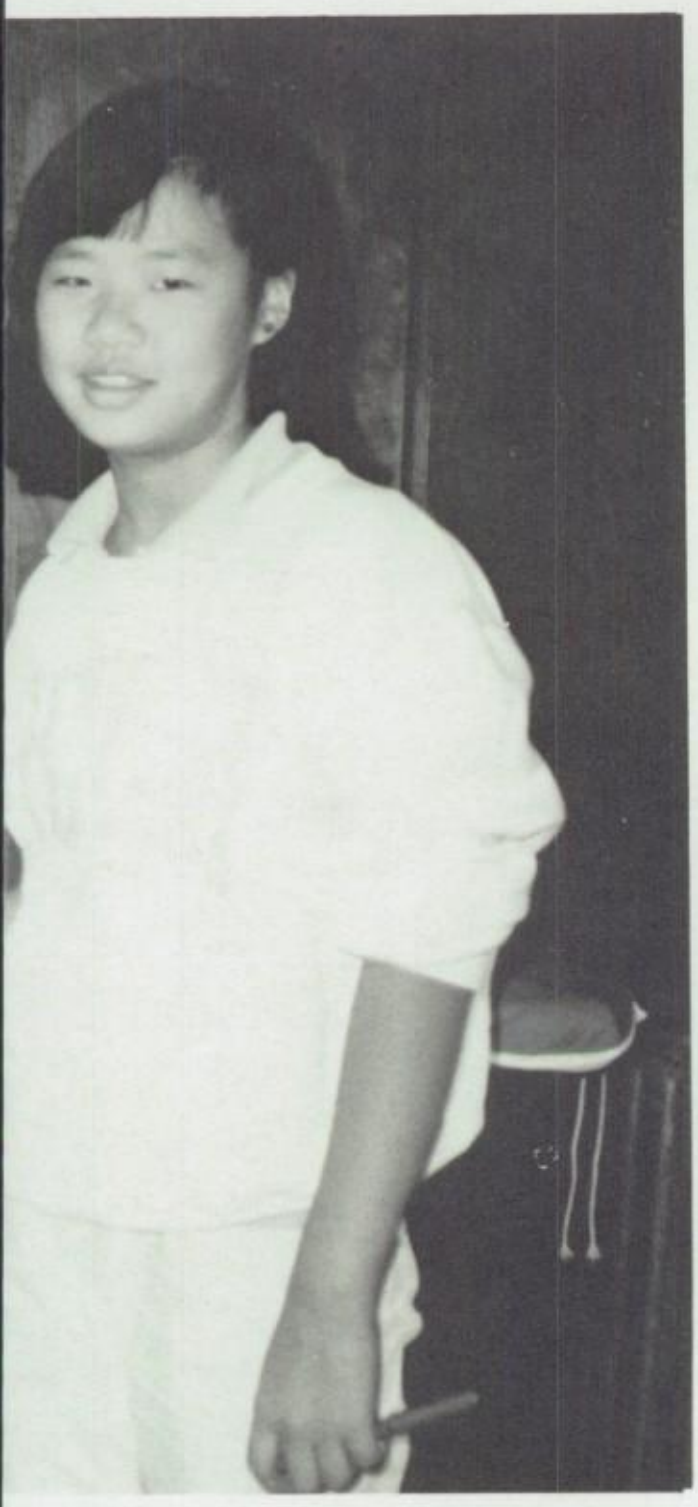
REPRESENTING STUDENT INTERESTS

The seven-eight students are shown here enjoying many of the elective opportunities available at LCHS.
This year many girls participated in the woods class and Mr. Jordan reported that they became some of his finest craftsmen . . . craftspersons!? Some of the projects were gumball machines, bread-boxes, breadboards, and candle holders. By the same token, many boys took cooking and sewing. Let's hear it for being well rounded people with many skills.

Garrett Kakita is carefully using the jigsaw . . . Mr. Jordan has pointed out that a class of 33 students represents 297 fingers and 66 thumbs.

Shirley Wong demonstrates the process of pressing all seams in sewing class.

Mr. Jordan advises Fernando Torres on how to complete his project.

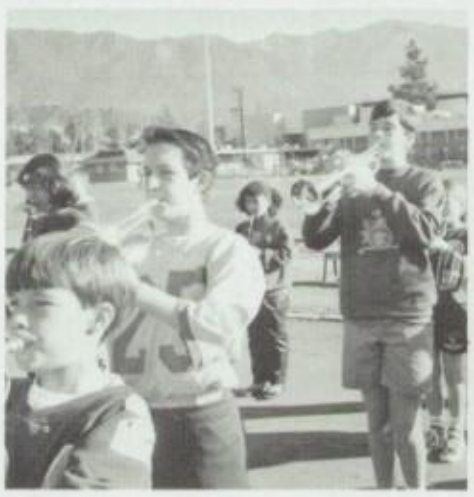


Lee Helberg and friends enjoy their choral rehearsal.

Miss Marstellar's 7-8 choral groups gets ready for one of their numerous performances. They appeared in a Christmas Concert and this year's musical production was "Lil Abner."

MOVING TO THE MUSIC

The elective program was even more exciting this year because of a new teacher on campus. Ms. Hamre, a hard-working band teacher was here at the crack of dawn and until late at night. She conducted groups in jazz, orchestra and band.



This was the first year that 7-8 had music at the Turkey Bowl. What an addition! Thank you Ms. Hamre.

Students enjoy their first marching band experience.

Jeff Kaplan mans the snare drum for Turkey Bowl festivities.

SWEETIE

Tom Scales already to march.

Ms. Hamre and the band warming up.

Cristel
I didn't get to know you as well as I'd like to because I wasn't in any of your classes. What can I say? No more Ms. Morres! Anyways I still don't know the edge. The only one Brian Behlendorf.

MORE ELECTIVE ENTHUSIASM

Miss Morres makes Spanish fun.

For many years Miss Morres has introduced Spanish to 7-8 students. Students in her classes learn how much fun speaking another language can be. Thank you Miss Morres for your fine teaching.

Feliz Cumpleanos Bryan and Kent!

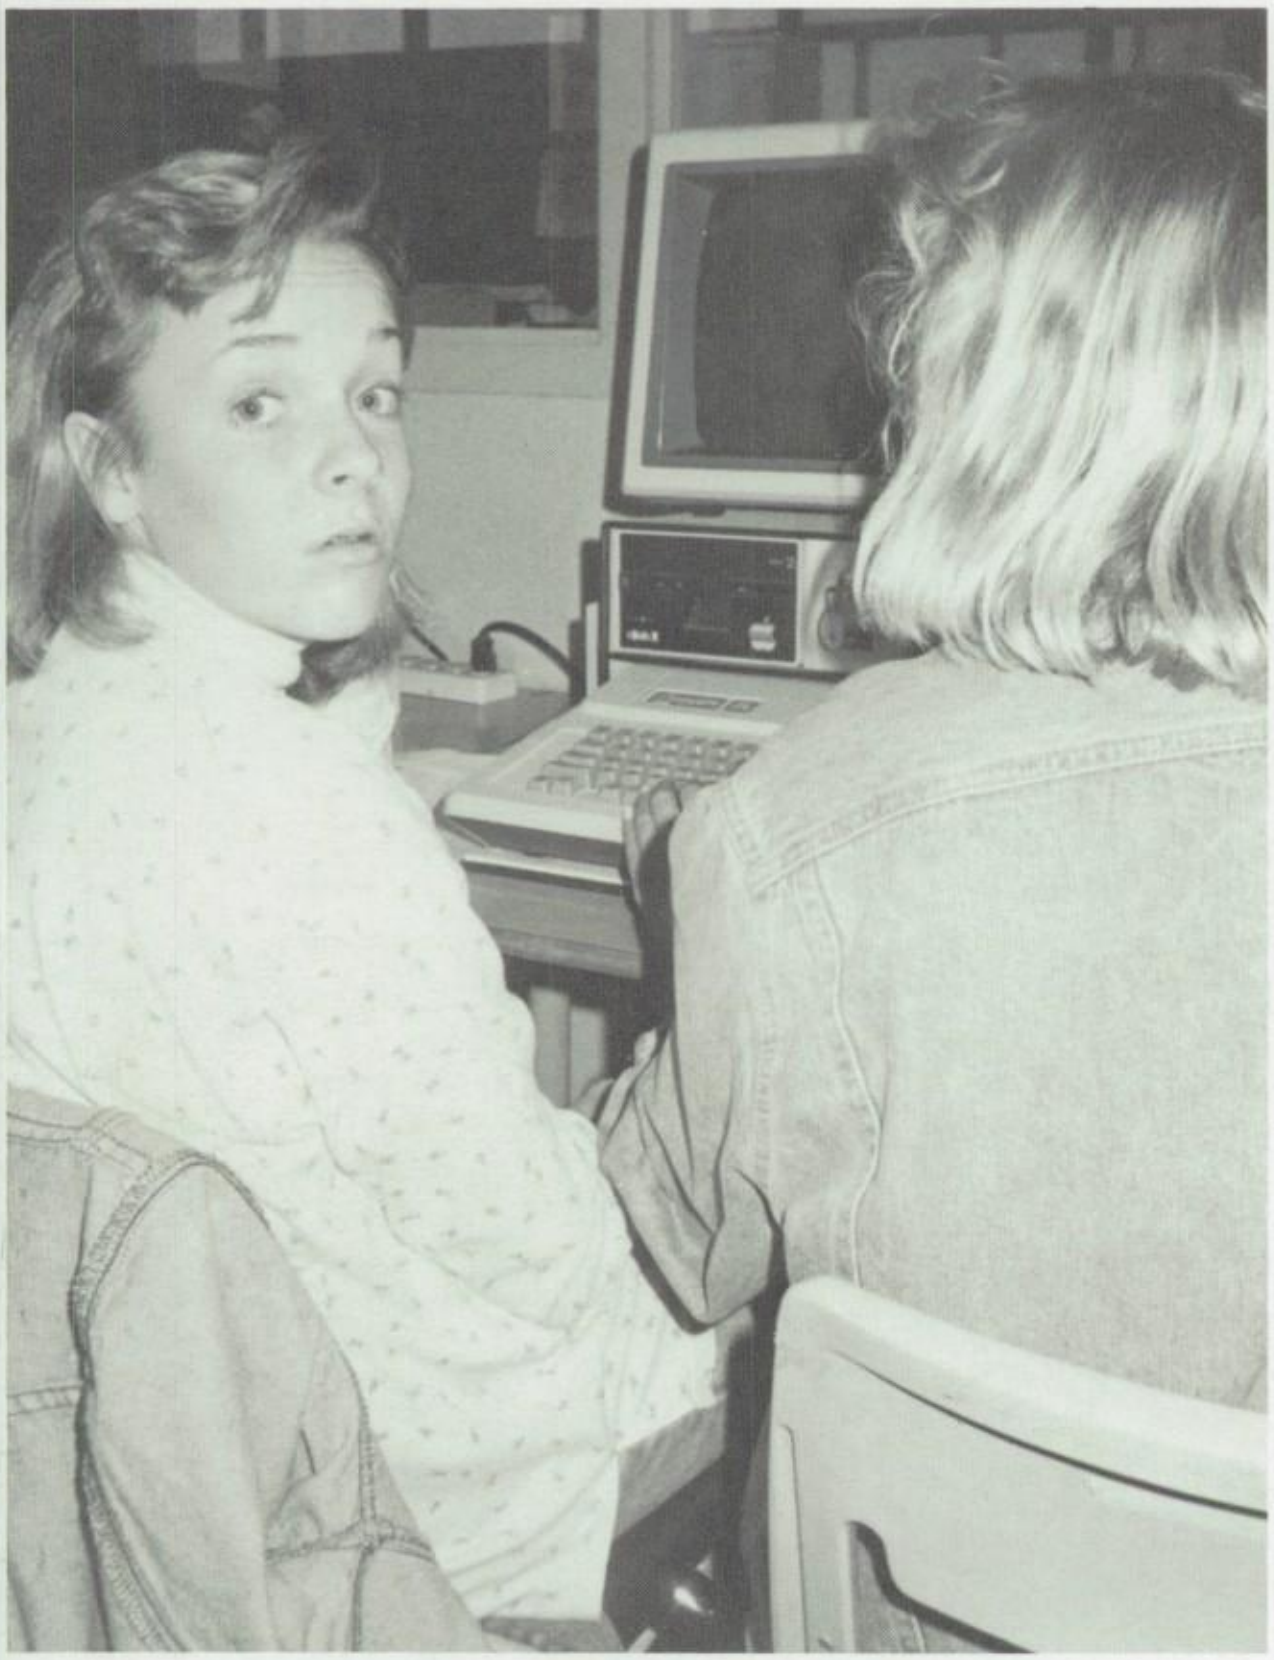
Clark and brian tend to their written assignments in Spanish class.

Miss Morres works on accent with Kent and Sean.

Hi! Cristel!
We survived! We actually went through Ms. Morres' class ALIVE. Have a terrific summer and Hasta luego!
amor,
Wendy D.

Mrs. Venit's elective class is Study Skills. These students are learning strategies for optimal learning and for optimal grade point averages. Mrs. Venit was instrumental in the development of a 7-12 study skills program. The "Keyword" is "achievement" — Main idea is education. Thanks Mrs. Venit.

"Software," "hardware," "programs," are all everyday vocabulary words to these "Kissel's Komputer Kids." Mr. Kissel's elective computer class is always a favorite among 7-8 students.



Holly Hales and Becky Gilden try to argue with a computer that does not, for the moment, compute.

JENNY MAYER LEADS 7-8 IN A GREAT YEAR

President Jenny Mayer and Activities Director Heather Blanche led the 7-8 ASB in many activities this year. The ASB provided dances, bake sales, dress up days and organized all spirit days. ASB members meet each Monday at lunch to plan their various activities. This year's ASB has done an outstanding job!! These student leaders will be a fine addition to the 9-12 ASB in years to come.

ACHIEVEMENT

Mrs. Morres is the encouragement and organizational force behind the high achievement students. For many years she has served as the tireless faculty sponsor of C.J.S.F. To gain membership students must attain high standards academically and in citizenship.

LITERARY COMPETITORS

Mrs. Wagner is the enthusiastic and supportive faculty member who takes the time to promote literary excellence. The seventh and eighth graders are included in the competition which includes categories in poetry, humor and short stories. The winners of the competition will see their work in the 1987 edition of Icebergs.

The high school participants took the time to pose with the junior authors.

COLLEGE DAY

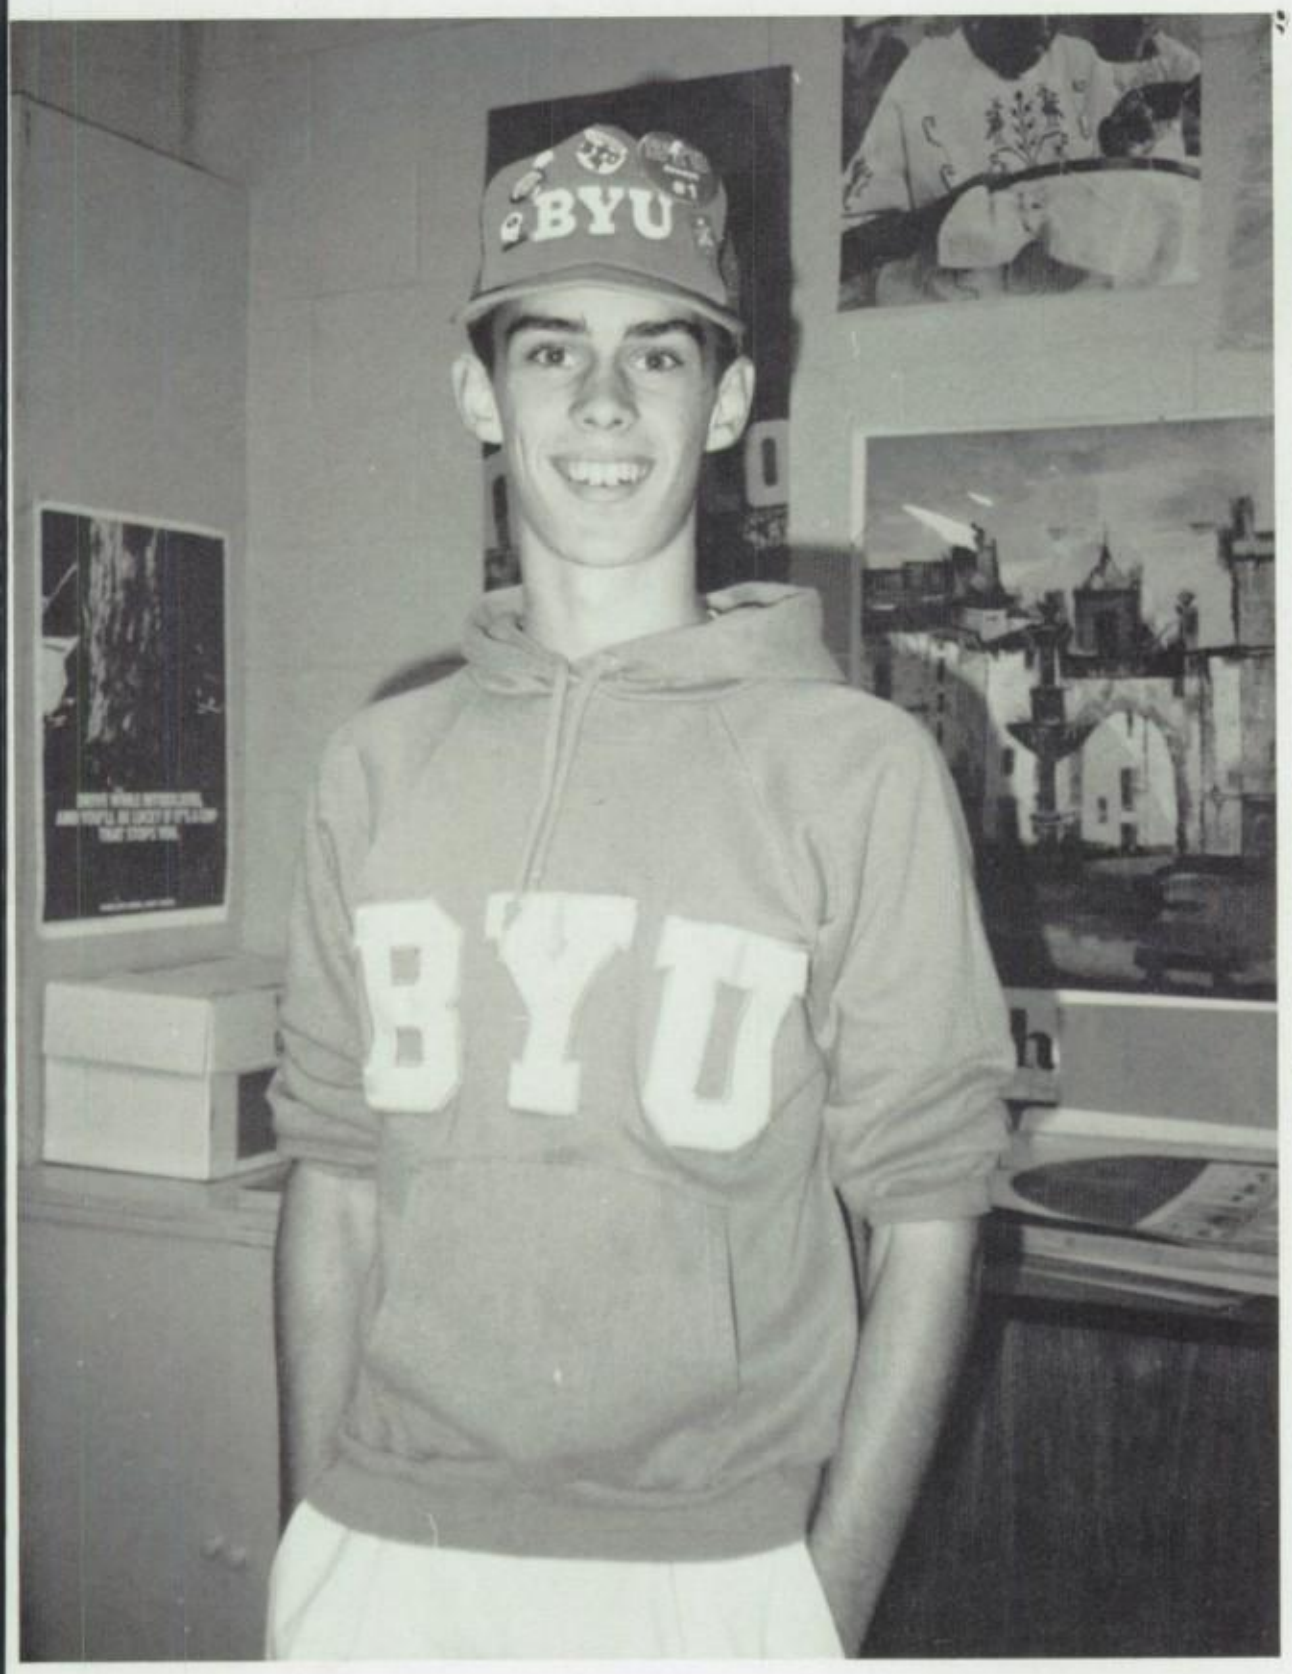
7-8 Students Show Off Their Future College Choice or Favorite Football Team

One of the favorite activity days of the year is "College Sweat-shirt Day." There's a lot of good natured competition and ribbing regarding everyone's choices.

USC and UCLA still rank as #1 choices as shown by Holly Hales, Alana Foster, Graham Dicks, Heather Blanche, Kerry Rosenblum and Marsha Hinckley. Other supporters, Mrs. Kenney, Becky Gilden and Cathy Parsons root for Berkeley, Pomona, and Stanford.

Dear Christel,
I didn't get to know you that well, but you seem like a really nice person & have a fun summer!
Luv, Anabel Koh

Hi Christel -
This year's been fun & Social Science was a bore without you. Stay pretty, sweet, + trim. Have a rad Summer.
Always -
Sara



Jeff Lord roots for BYU. Meanwhile Debra Oakes, Melissa Kent and Jennifer Claridge cast their votes for UCLA and Ricks College. Mrs. Kadletz, Courtney Gilbreath and Missy Le Boeuf support SDSU, Harvard and USC.

Hey Christel,
It's been a great year but I'm glad its over. I'll see ya in 9th grade.

Jeff Lord,

DEBORAH CHRISTENSEN AND JASON PEARCE STAR AS DAISY MAE AND LIL' ABNER IN 7-8 PRODUCTION

A Typical Day in Dogpatch is full of mayhem, murder, and madness. Daisy Mae timidly suggests to Abner that it might be nice if they got married but, stalwart lad that he is, he would rather go fishing with his cronies. The fishing trip is ended by a meeting in Cornpone Square (Jubilitation T. Cornpone) where it is revealed that the government has decided that Dogpatch is the most useless place in the U.S.A. and suitable for the testing of atom bombs. The townsfolk are amazed (Rag Offen The Bush) and some want to find somewhere else to live but Mammy Yokum insists there must be something special about Dogpatch that will save it.

Daisy Mae again proposes to Abner (Namely You) and together they lament the fact that they live in an (Unnecessary Town). All seems lost, but Mammy Yokum comes up with Yokumberry Tonic, which has made Lil Abner the fine young man he is. With Scientist Finsdale, Abner sets out for Washington for further testing on the tonic, and Dogpatch seems saved. The tonic has astonishing results on six typical repulsive Dogpatch males and news of it reaches General Bullmoose, a man who looks on Herbert Hoover as a dangerous radical. He offers Abner a million dollars for the tonic's formula. Abner prefers to donate the formula to the government so the General decides to use Ampassionata von Climax to change his mind.

Home in Dogpatch, Abner and Marryin' Sam decide that (The Country Is In The Best Of Hands) and the town readies for Sadie Hawkins Day. Abner gallantly agrees to let Daisy Mae catch him to save her from marrying Earthquake McGoon, but during the race he is trapped by Ampassionata.

Abner returns to Washington as the tests continue on the men (Oh, Happy Day). While at home, Daisy Mae feels she is (Past My Prime). While writing home, Abner muses on (Love In A Home). Daisy Mae has a feeling that Abner is in great danger and persuades everyone to set out for Washington to save him. In Washington, preparations for Abner's marriage to Ampassionata continue; General Bullmoose says (Progress Is The Root Of All Evil). The wedding is interrupted by the Dogpatch folks, who see that the new men have no interest in love and plead with the scientists to (Put 'Em Back As They Were).

The (Matramonial Stomp) brings Lil Abner and Daisy Mae together, but not before the folks discover that their beloved statue of Jubilitation T. Cornpone covers a tablet signed 'A. Lincoln:' Dogpatch is a worthwhile place after all!

Jason Berns as Pappy Yokum, and Jason Pearce as Lil' Abner are out the door and on stage.

CROSS COUNTRY SKIING . . .

Yosemite offers students the opportunity to try many new things, including cross-country skiing, for many students this is their first experience; for others a chance to sharpen their skills.

Is that Cindy again behind those Foster Grants?

Mr. Weaver helps out with ski selections, as 7-8 students go off to a great day in the snow.

For some, skiing has it's ups ...

. . . A GREAT WAY TO SEE THE SIGHTS

HIKING-THE ONLY WAY TO SEE THE REAL BEAUTY OF YOSEMITE.

Students stop to ponder the beauty of Yosemite. There aren't too many places with such beautiful views.

Is that Cindy again? What a hiker!

Students take a leisurely hike.

Dear Christel,
You are such a nice person. Have a good summer, I wish
I got to know you better! All miss you
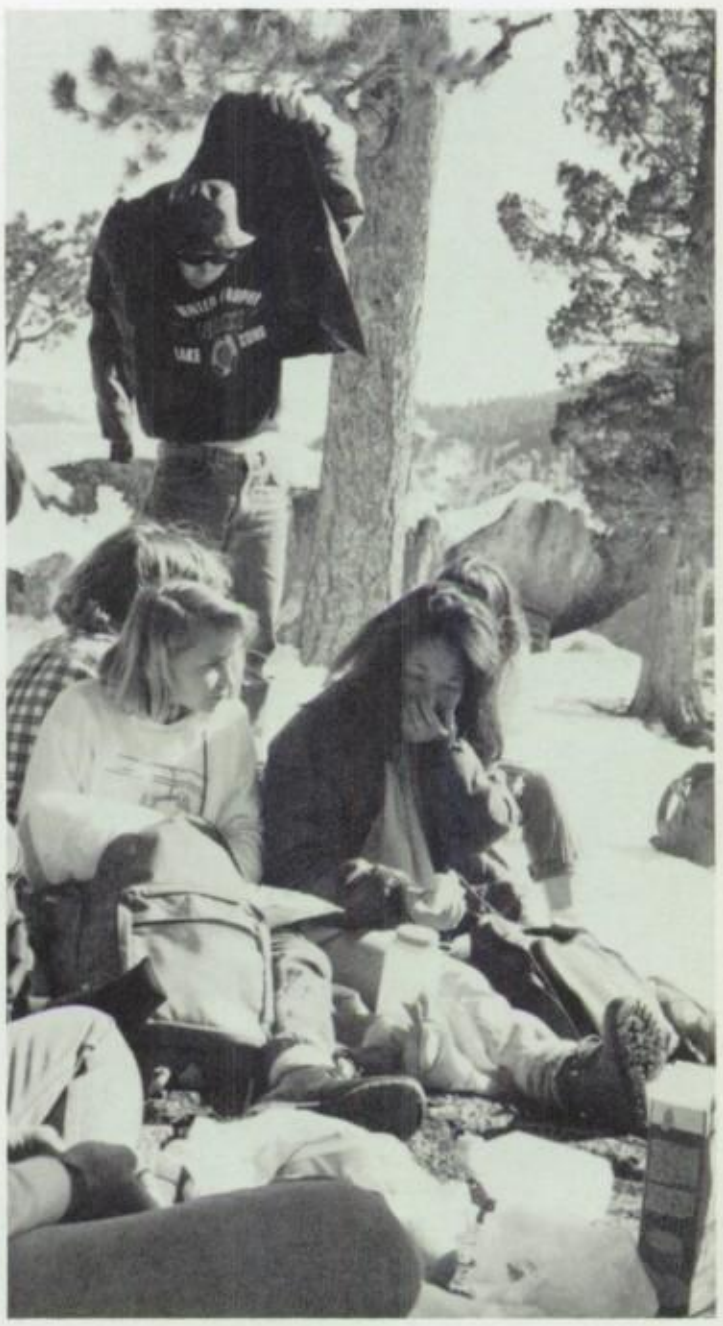
when I leave!!
Love always,
Deborah
Christenson

Students stop for a break and to enjoy the day.



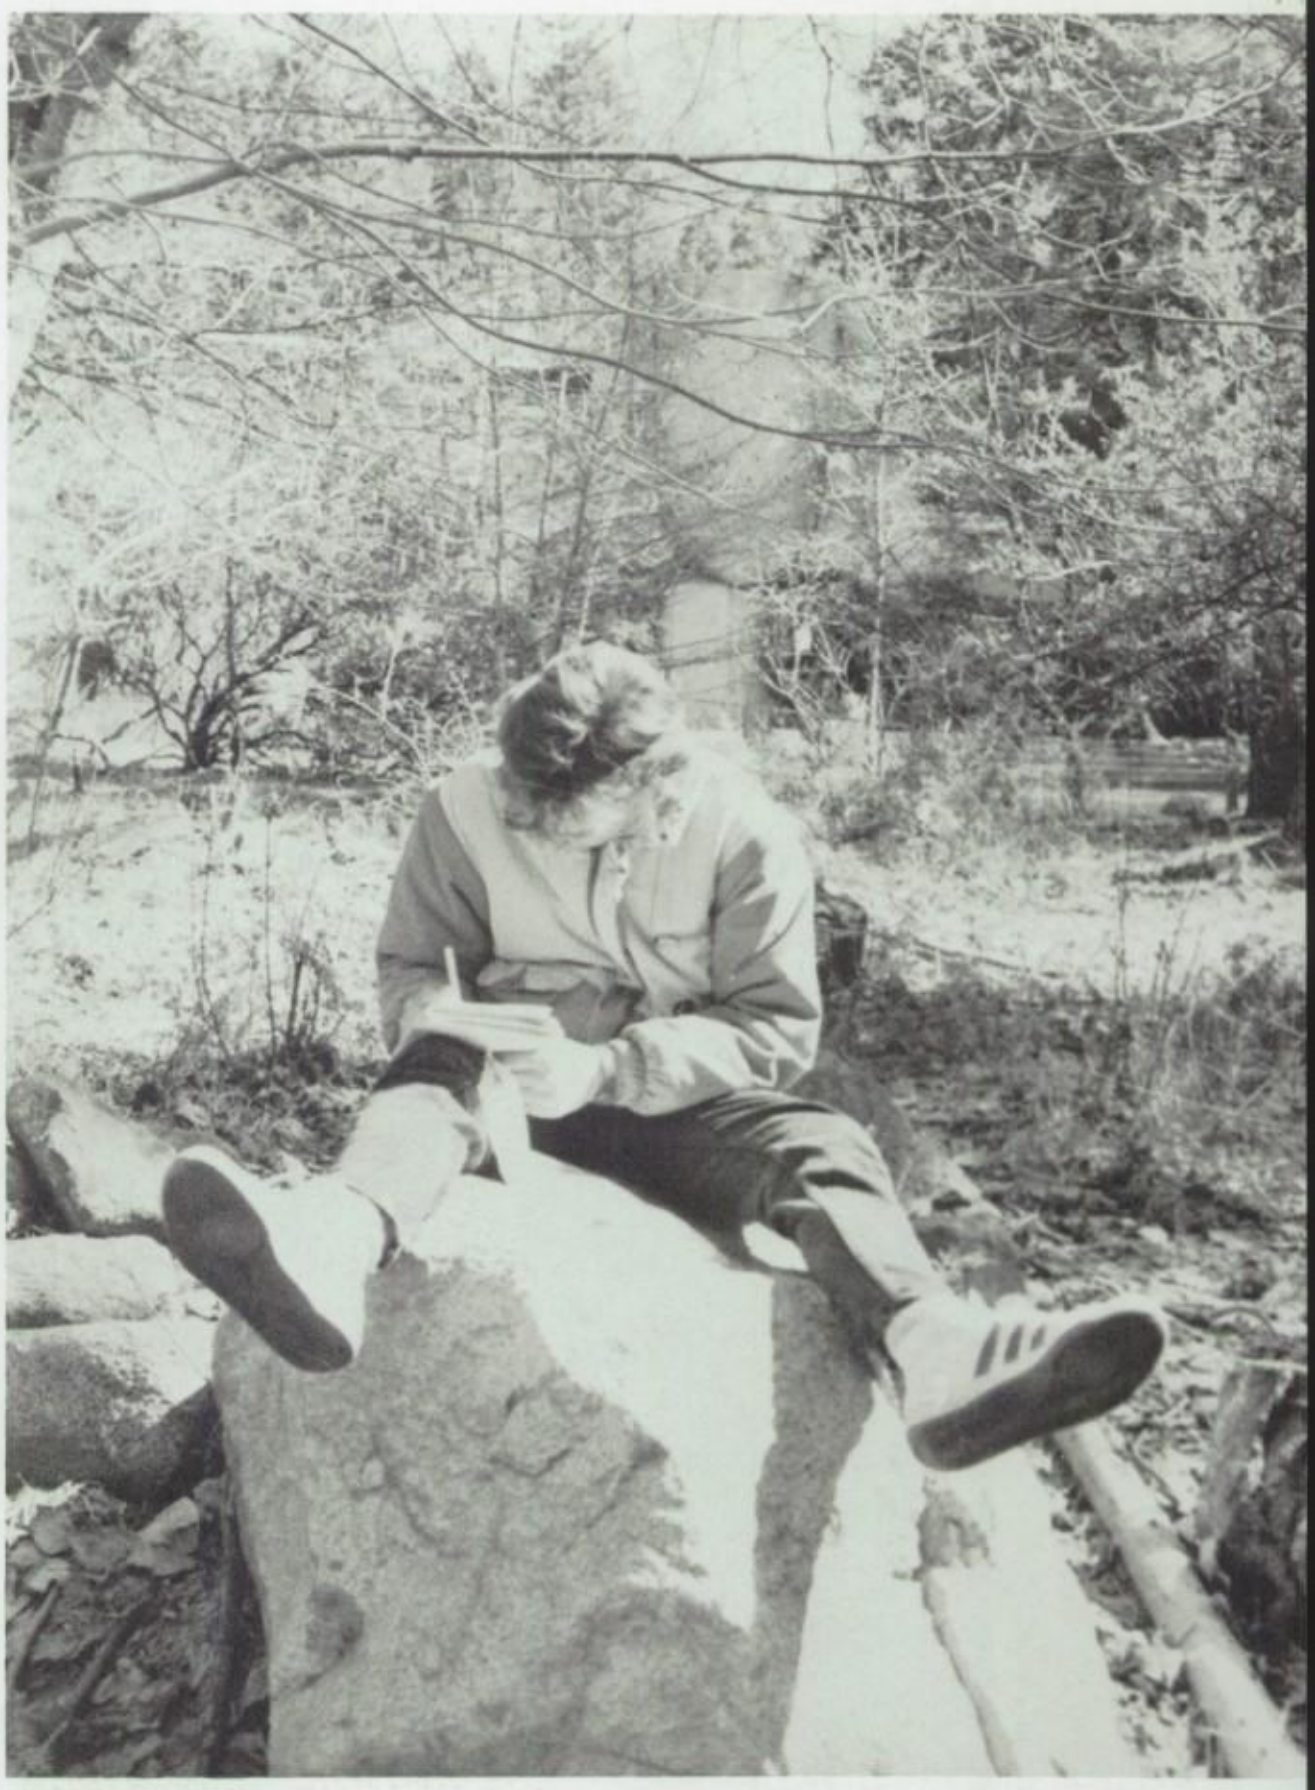
Where are Mr. Kissel and Mr. Kumano? Are they lost again?

Line up-snow shoes on- Let's go! Five miles is nothing for these folks!

YOSEMITE 1987 ANOTHER GREAT TIME!

A quiet moment in the sun.

Mr. Schaafsma forges through the snow.



A view from the top. That's a long way down.

The majesty of El Capitan

There really is no place like Yosemite. As the week ends 7-8 students realize what a great time it was. Now back to the regular routine. It is doubtful that anyone will forget the experience at Yosemite Institute 1987.

How can any rock be so big?

Cindy takes final notes, or is that homework she's finishing.

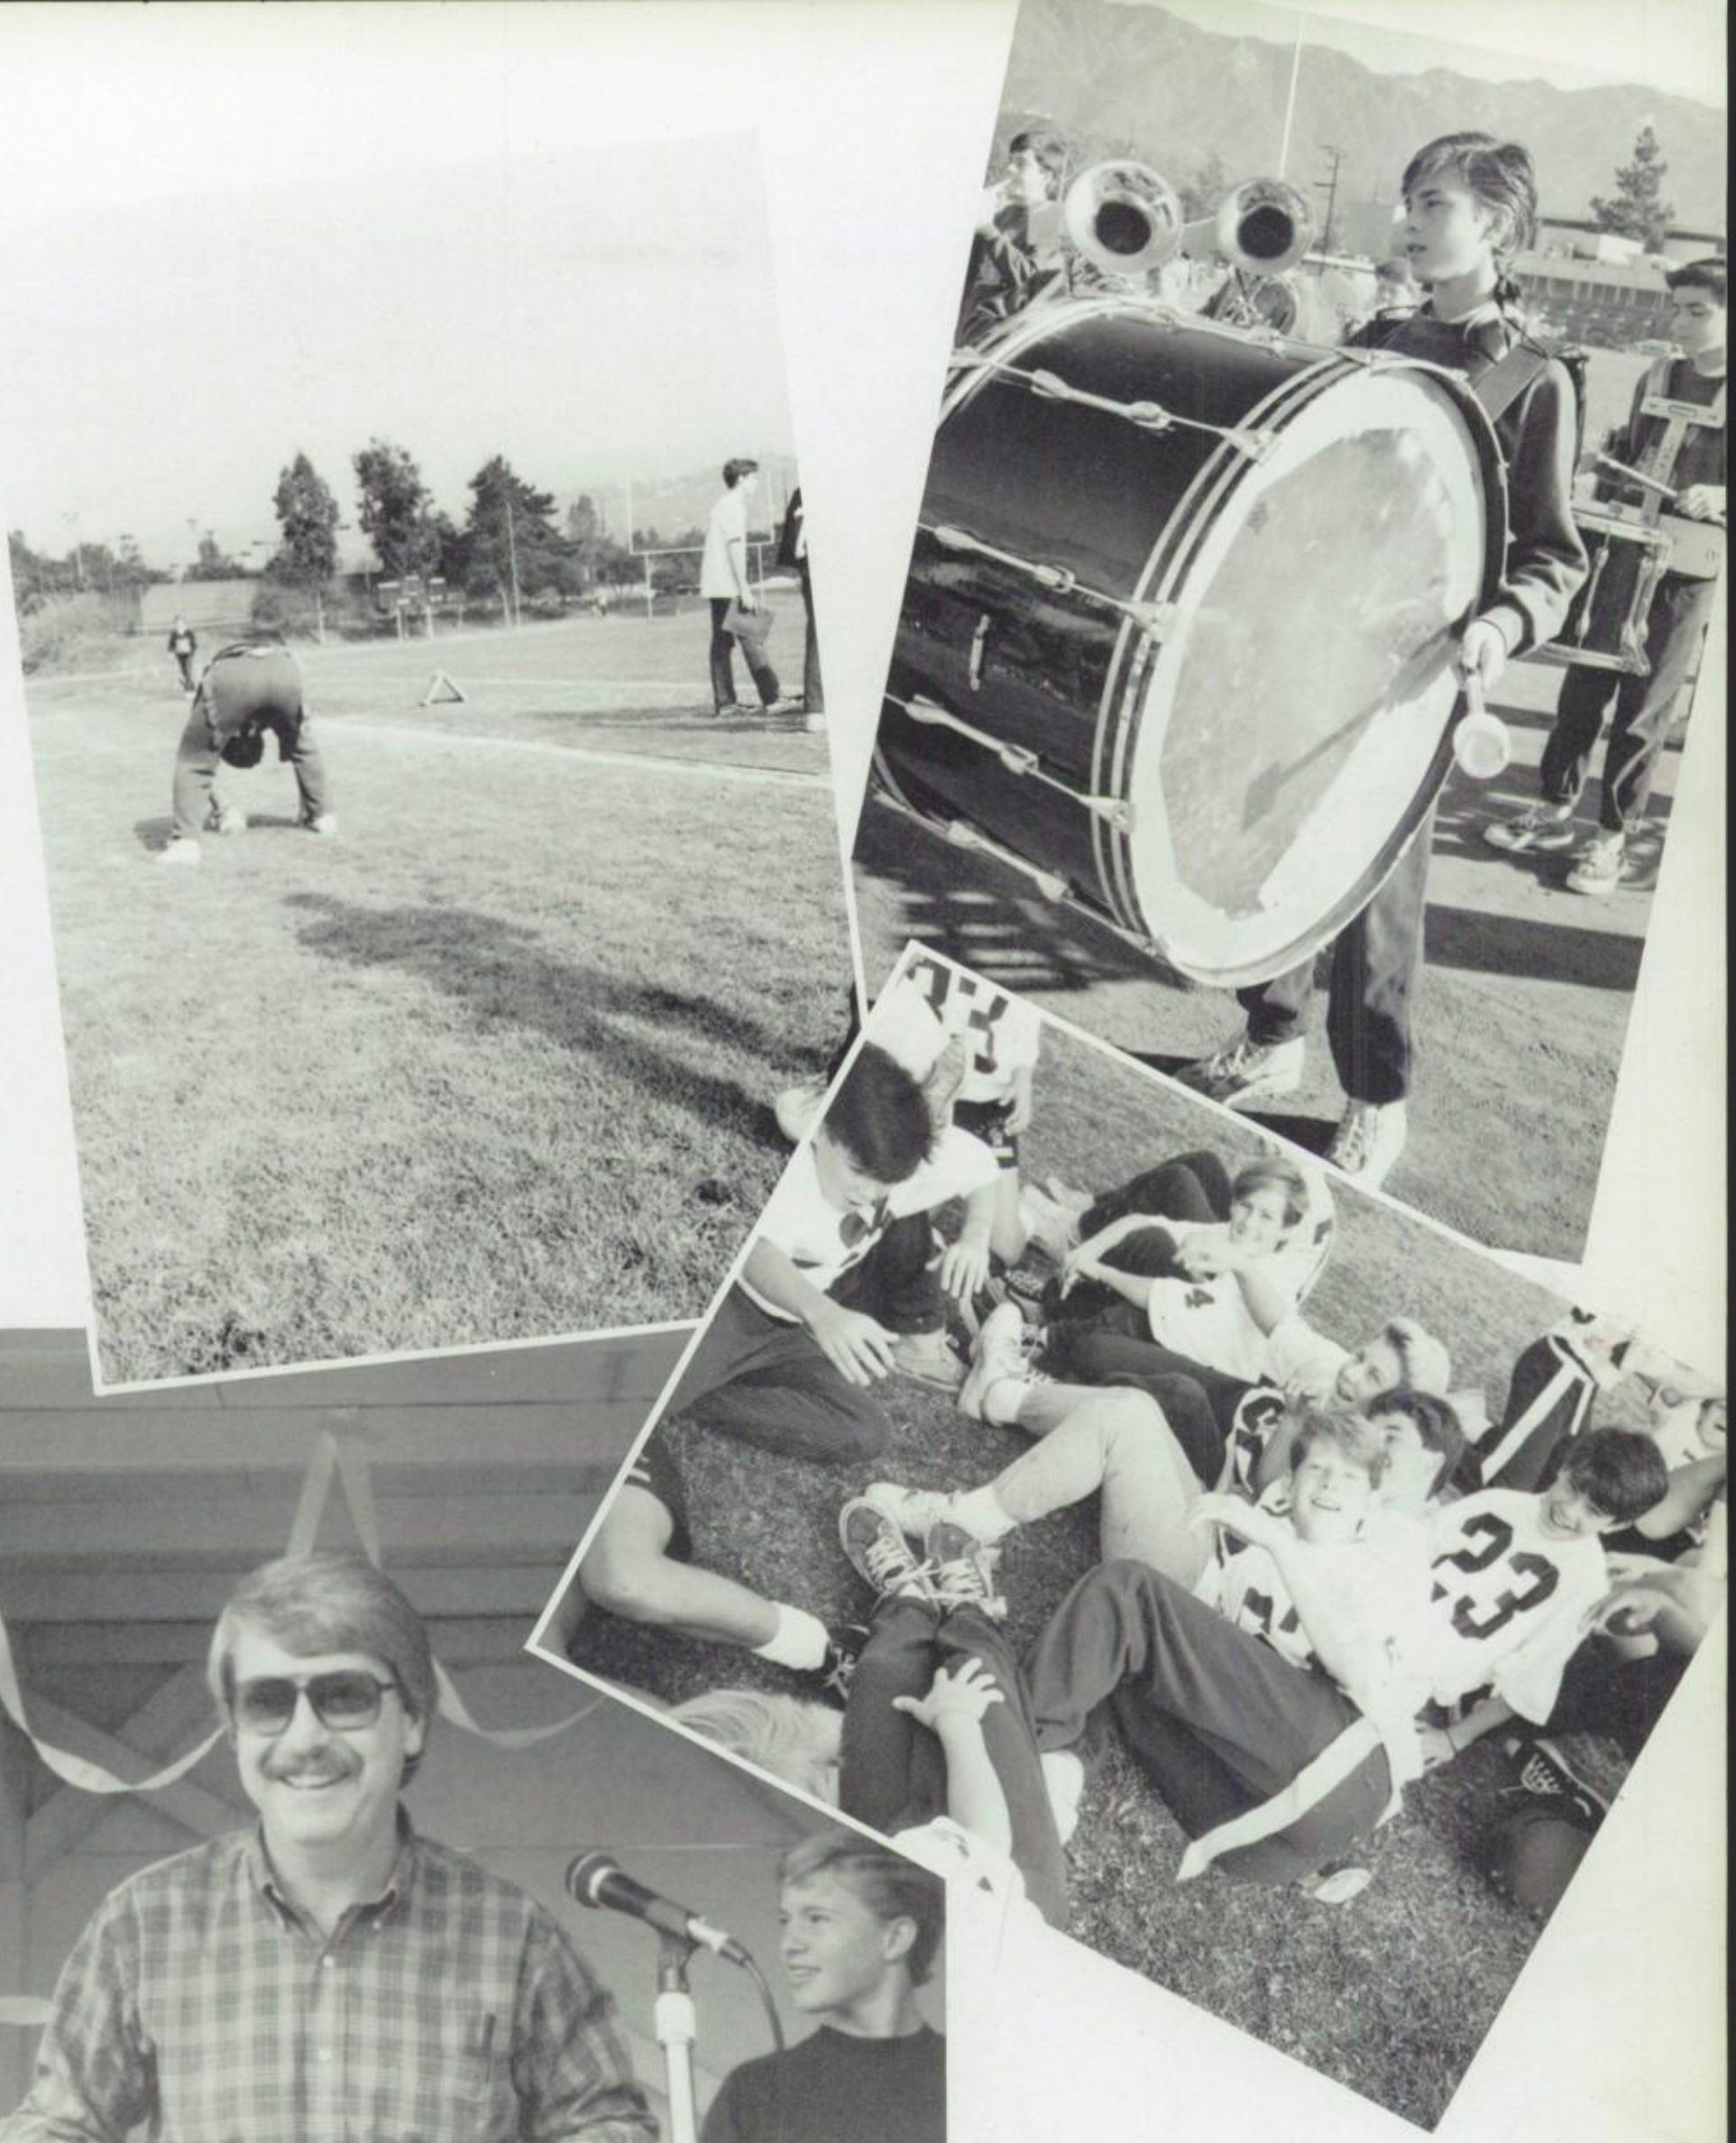
Turkey Bowl



TEAM EFFORT EVERYTIME

School Three Scores a Victory

Turkey Bowl is an annual event that promotes "school within a school" spirit. In the seventh grade School One played against Two with School One becoming the victors.

In the eighth grade School Three successfully played against School Four.

The runners, during half time, ran great races and Mrs. Hamre provided student band music. It was a great event!!

School One Won One!

It had been a few years since School One had been victorious. Mrs. Schopflin and Mrs. Miller were getting a little discouraged. Good Show School One!

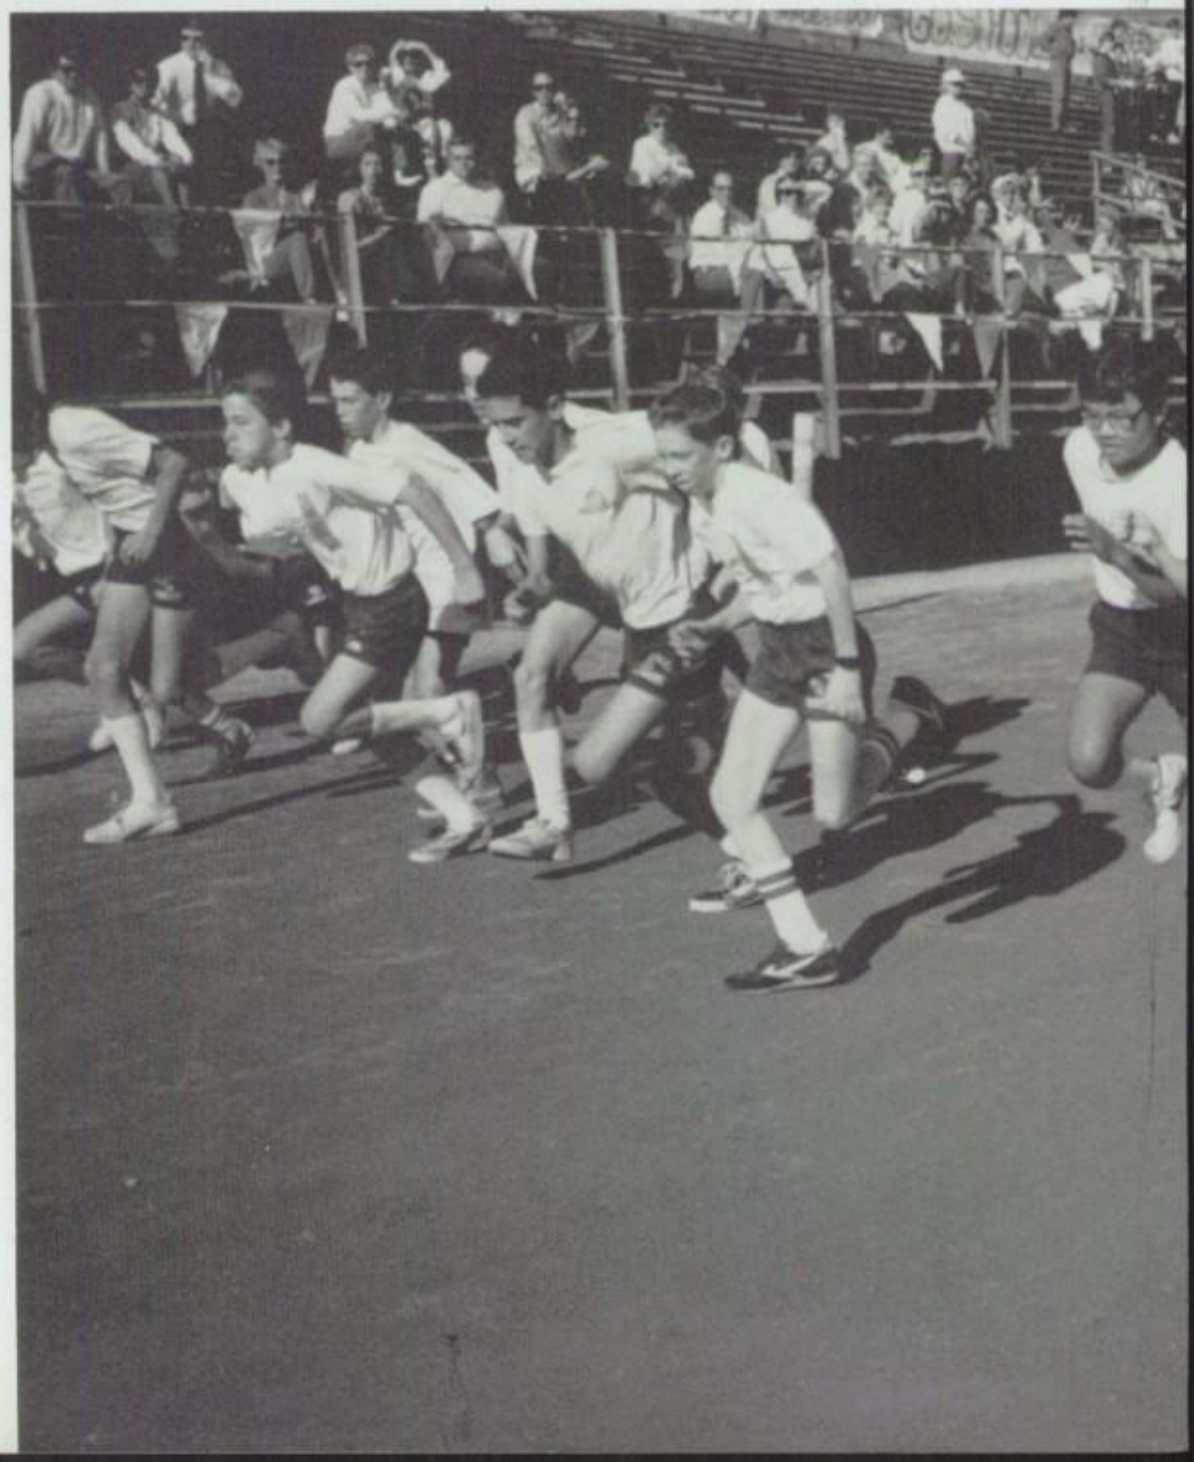
Tim Park is School two MVP.

THE GREAT RACE

Steps To Victory

Seventh Graders, Jesse Back, Yoon He Kim, Wilder Thomas and Renee Pengra ran a great race and Renee walked off with top honors.

Crystal,
How is your life?
mine is ok. Have a cool
summer & I will see ya
next year.
Emily Koe



Wilder Thomas crosses the finish line.

Brian Behlendorf and Lisa Halpern dash their way to winning positions.

For the past six years Turkey Bowl competition has included some track events. The runners have provided a new and exciting dimension to the big event.

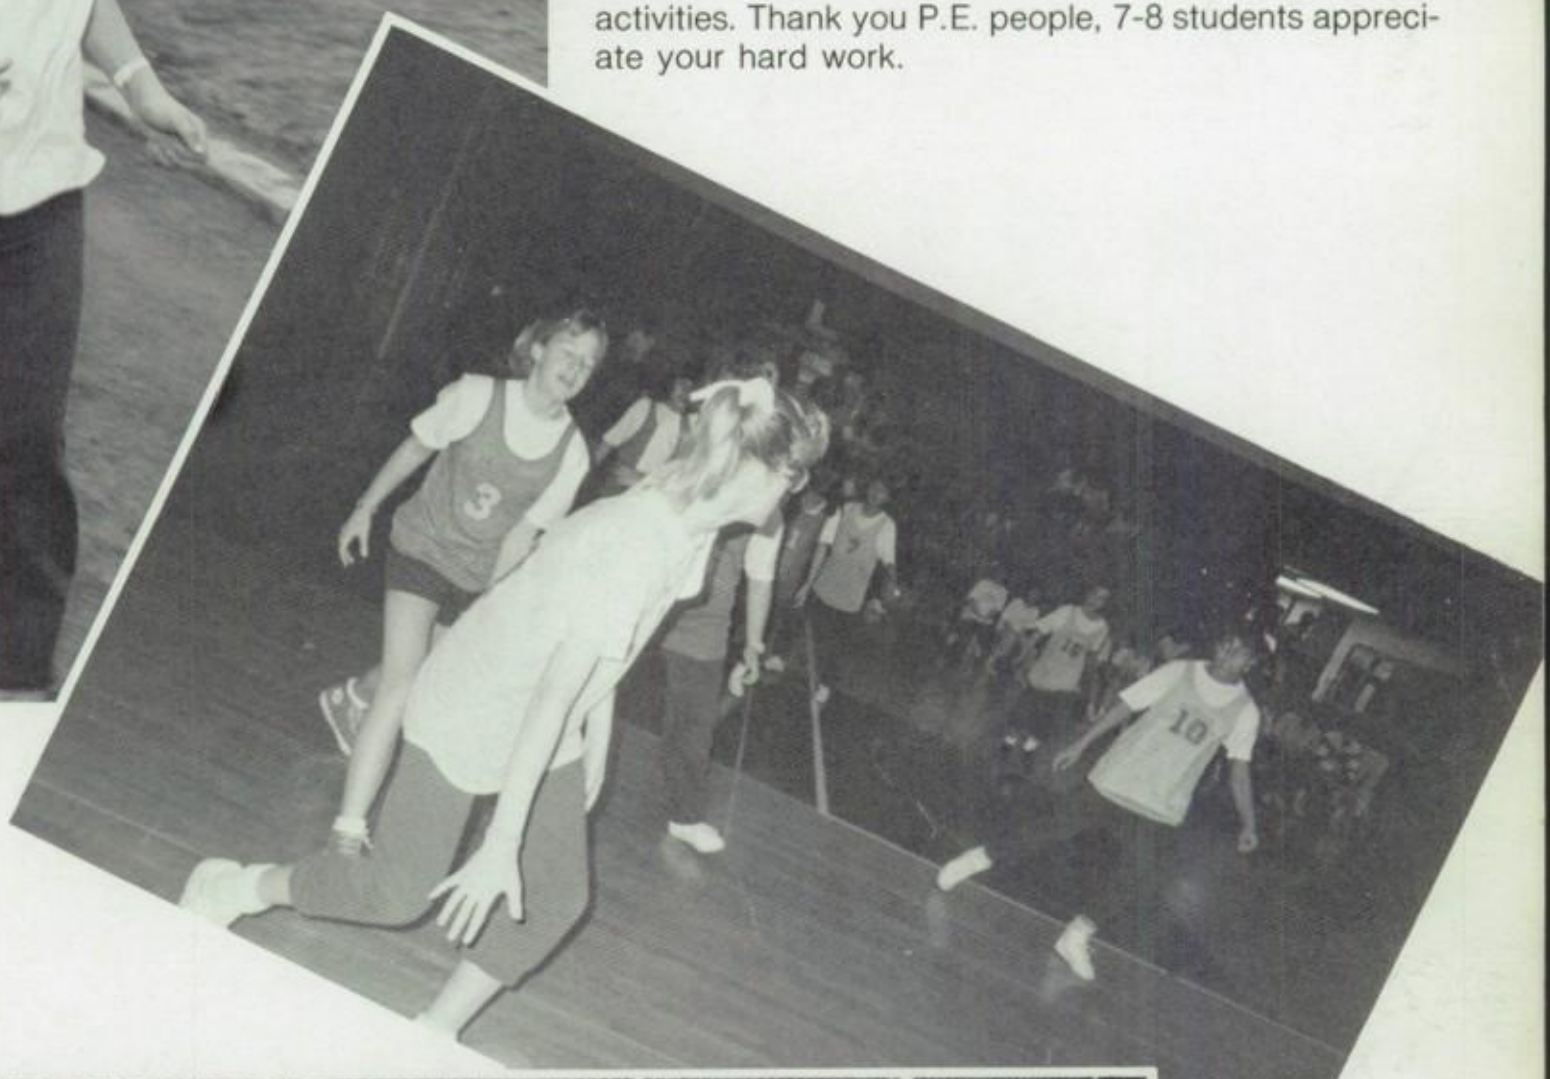
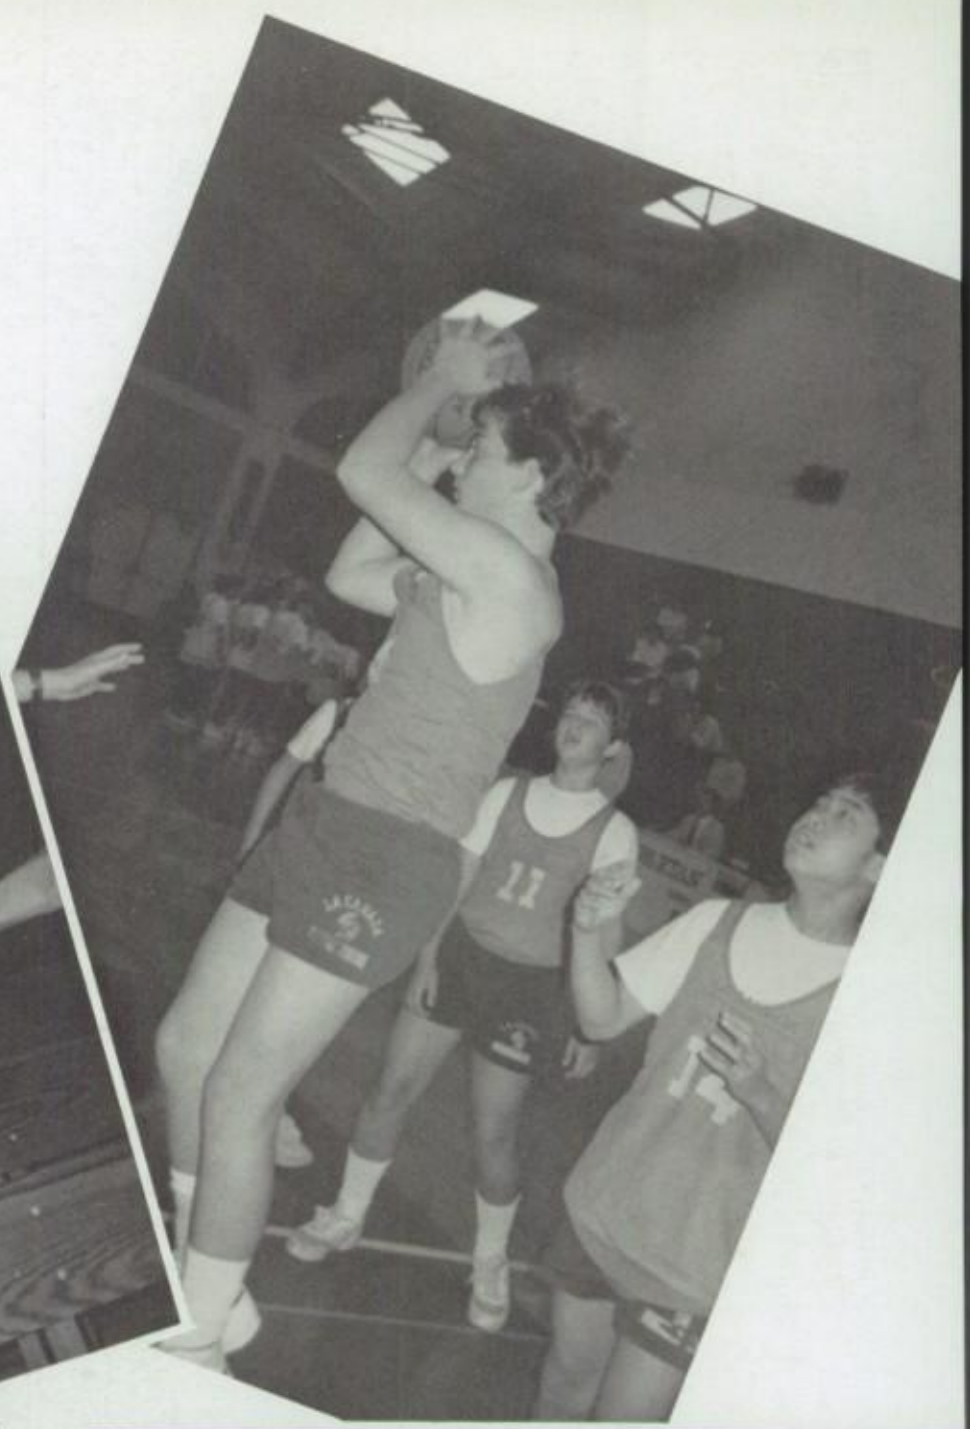
Physical Education 7-8 Style



The 7-8 P.E. program is a diverse one indeed. 7-8 students experience a wide vareity of sports and competitions. Led by Mrs. Bierman, Mr. Jackson, and Mr. Logan, 7-8 students participate in everything from track to swimming. The highlight of the year is the Turkey Bowl. This year a basketball game of School 1 against School 2 and School 3 against School 4 was added. The P.E. Department also helps out with spirit day activities. Thank you P.E. people, 7-8 students appreciate your hard work.

SCHOOL ONE VS SCHOOL TWO ON THE COURTS

The second big athletic event of the year is the school versus school basketball tournament. School one was victorious again. The 8th grade victor was School 4.



SCHOOL ONE WON ONE AGAIN!

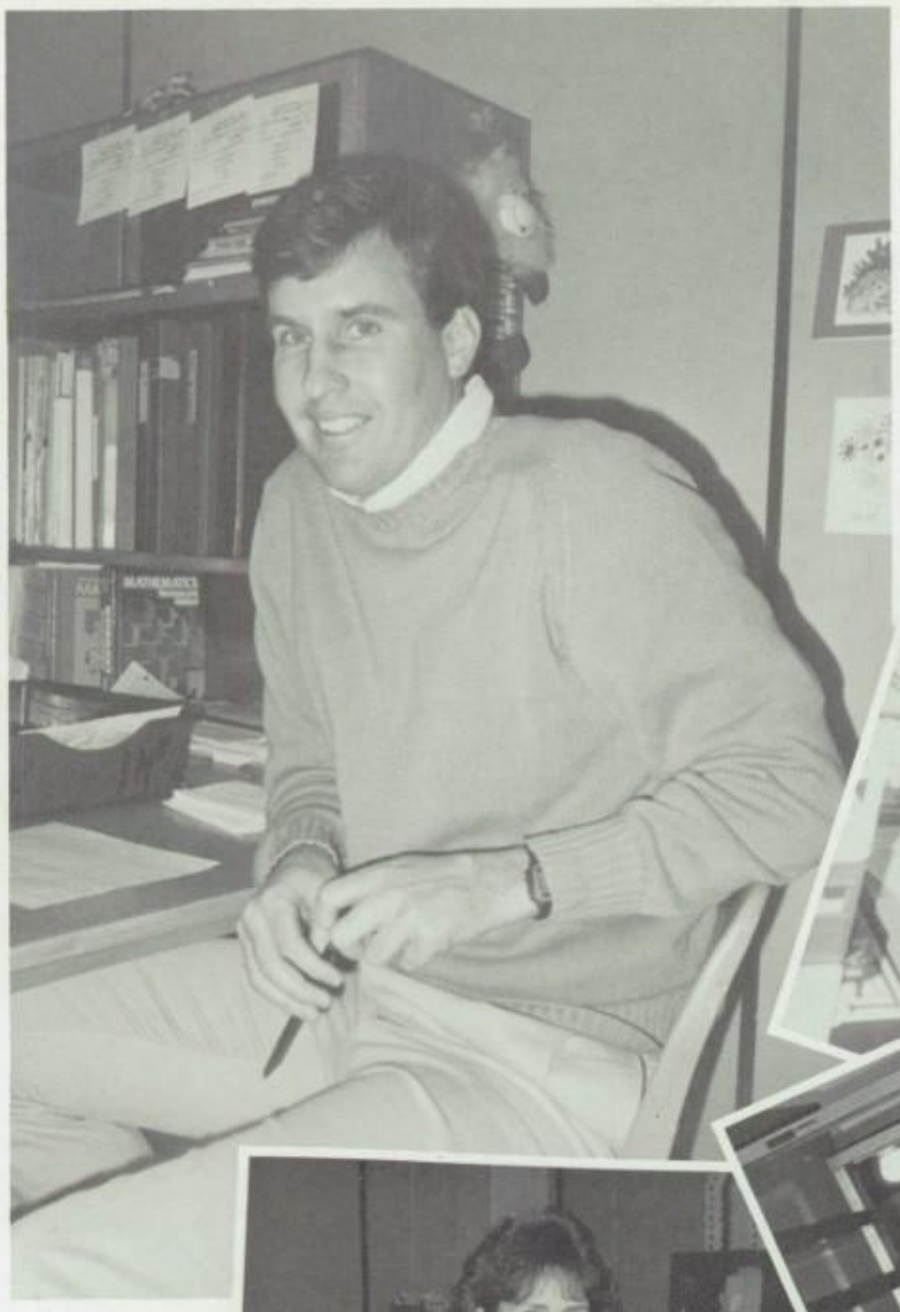
ADMINISTRATION AND COUNSELING

La Canada High School has a new principal, Mr. Drew Meyer. The Assistant Principals include Mr. Voytek Dolinski, Mr. Glenn Perrin, and Mrs. Julie Miller. Mr. Dolinski was instrumental in La Canada High School being selected a California Distinguished School. Mr. Perrin takes care of our learning environment. Mrs. Miller heads the Guidance Department and spends many hours supervising 7-8 activities. Mr. Robert Miller is the 7-8 counselor who was honored at Founders Day this year, for his many contributions to 7-8 students.



SPECIAL PEOPLE, SPECIAL JOBS, AND SPECIAL EDUCATION

These people help make La Canada High School a very special place. Mr. Hofman, Mrs. Kenney and Mrs. Kadletz teach special education students. Mrs. Williams keeps our ASB financial world in order. Iris Douglas runs the cafeteria with lots of smiles and warm words.

CLASSIFIED STAFF

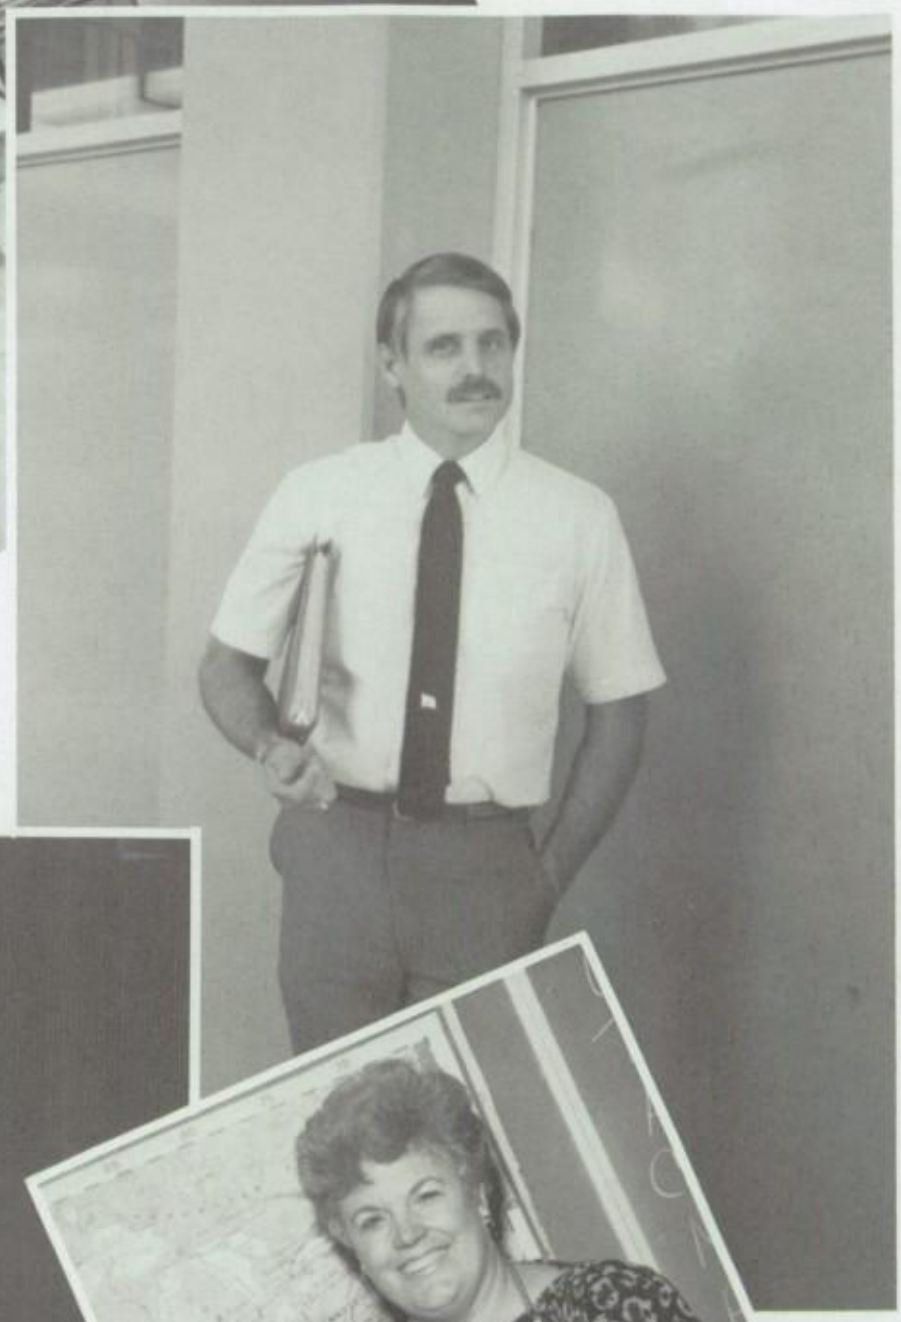
CLASSIFICATION: GREAT

Mrs. Carbonetti, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Raab, Mrs. Taylor, Mark Goodard - Page 133. On page 132 we find Mrs. Hakman, Mrs. Whitney, Mrs. Bige, Mrs. Falin and Miss Brown. All of these valuable people help make LCHS run smoothly.

7-8 FACULTY

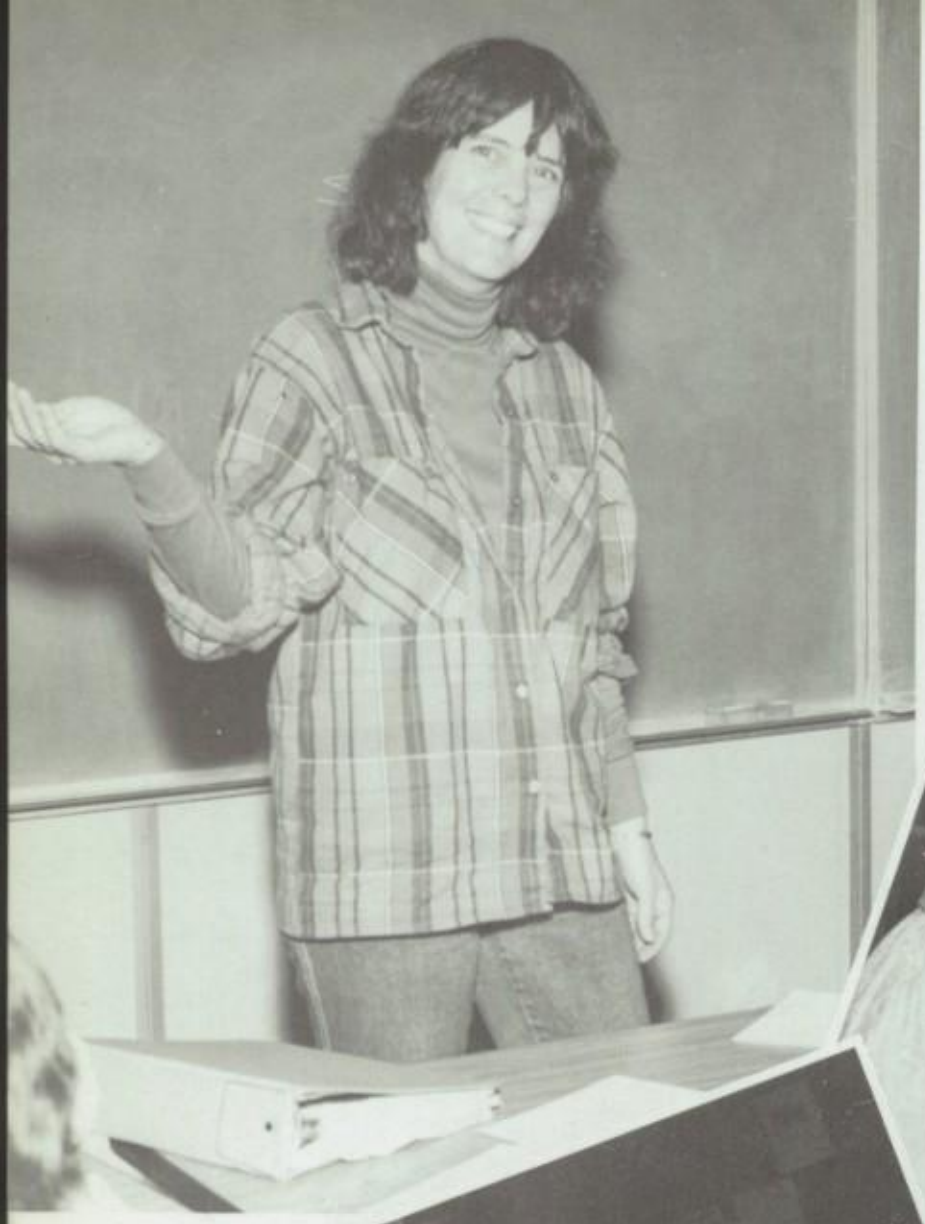
The 7-8 facutly is truly a group of very unique teachers, each offering very special qualities to 7-8 students. Here are just a few . . . Mrs. Venit-English, Mr. Jordan — Woods, Mrs. Johnson-Math, Mr. Lipofsky (with snake)- Science, Mr. Kumano- Science, Mrs. Morgan-Social Science, Mrs. Miller (with baby Erin)-Social Science, Mrs. Sanderson (in costume- great school spirit Mrs. S. Thanks!)- Art, and Mr. Weaver-Social Science. These teachers help to make school within a school such a successful program.

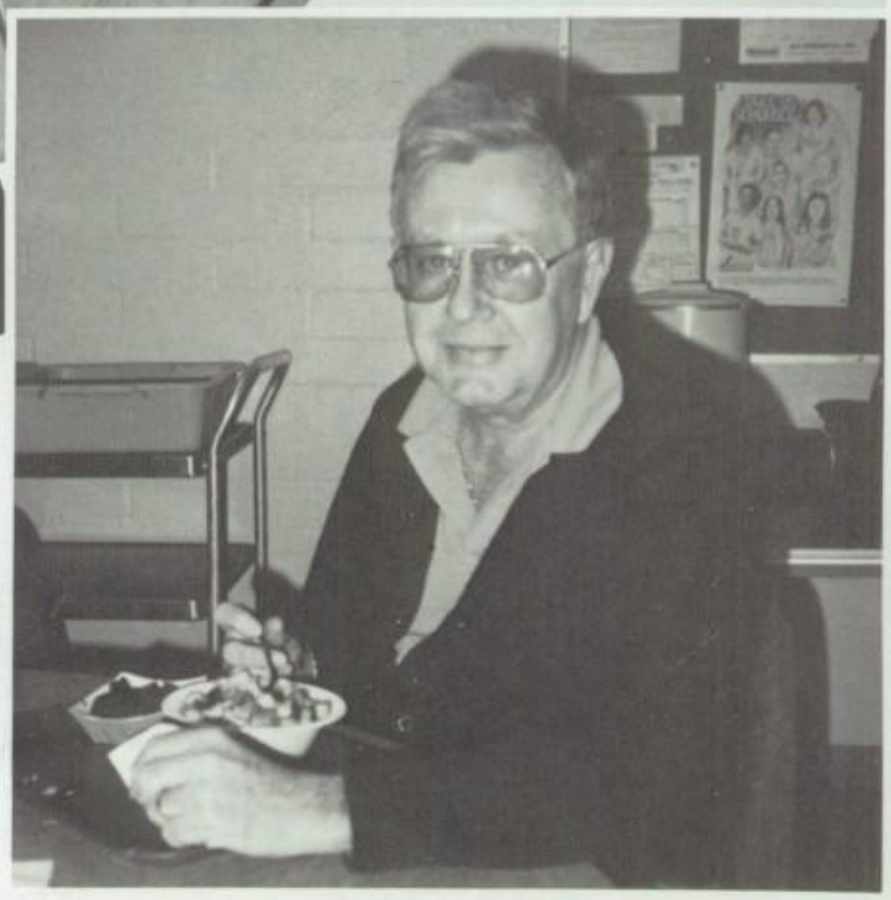
MORE GREAT TEACHERS



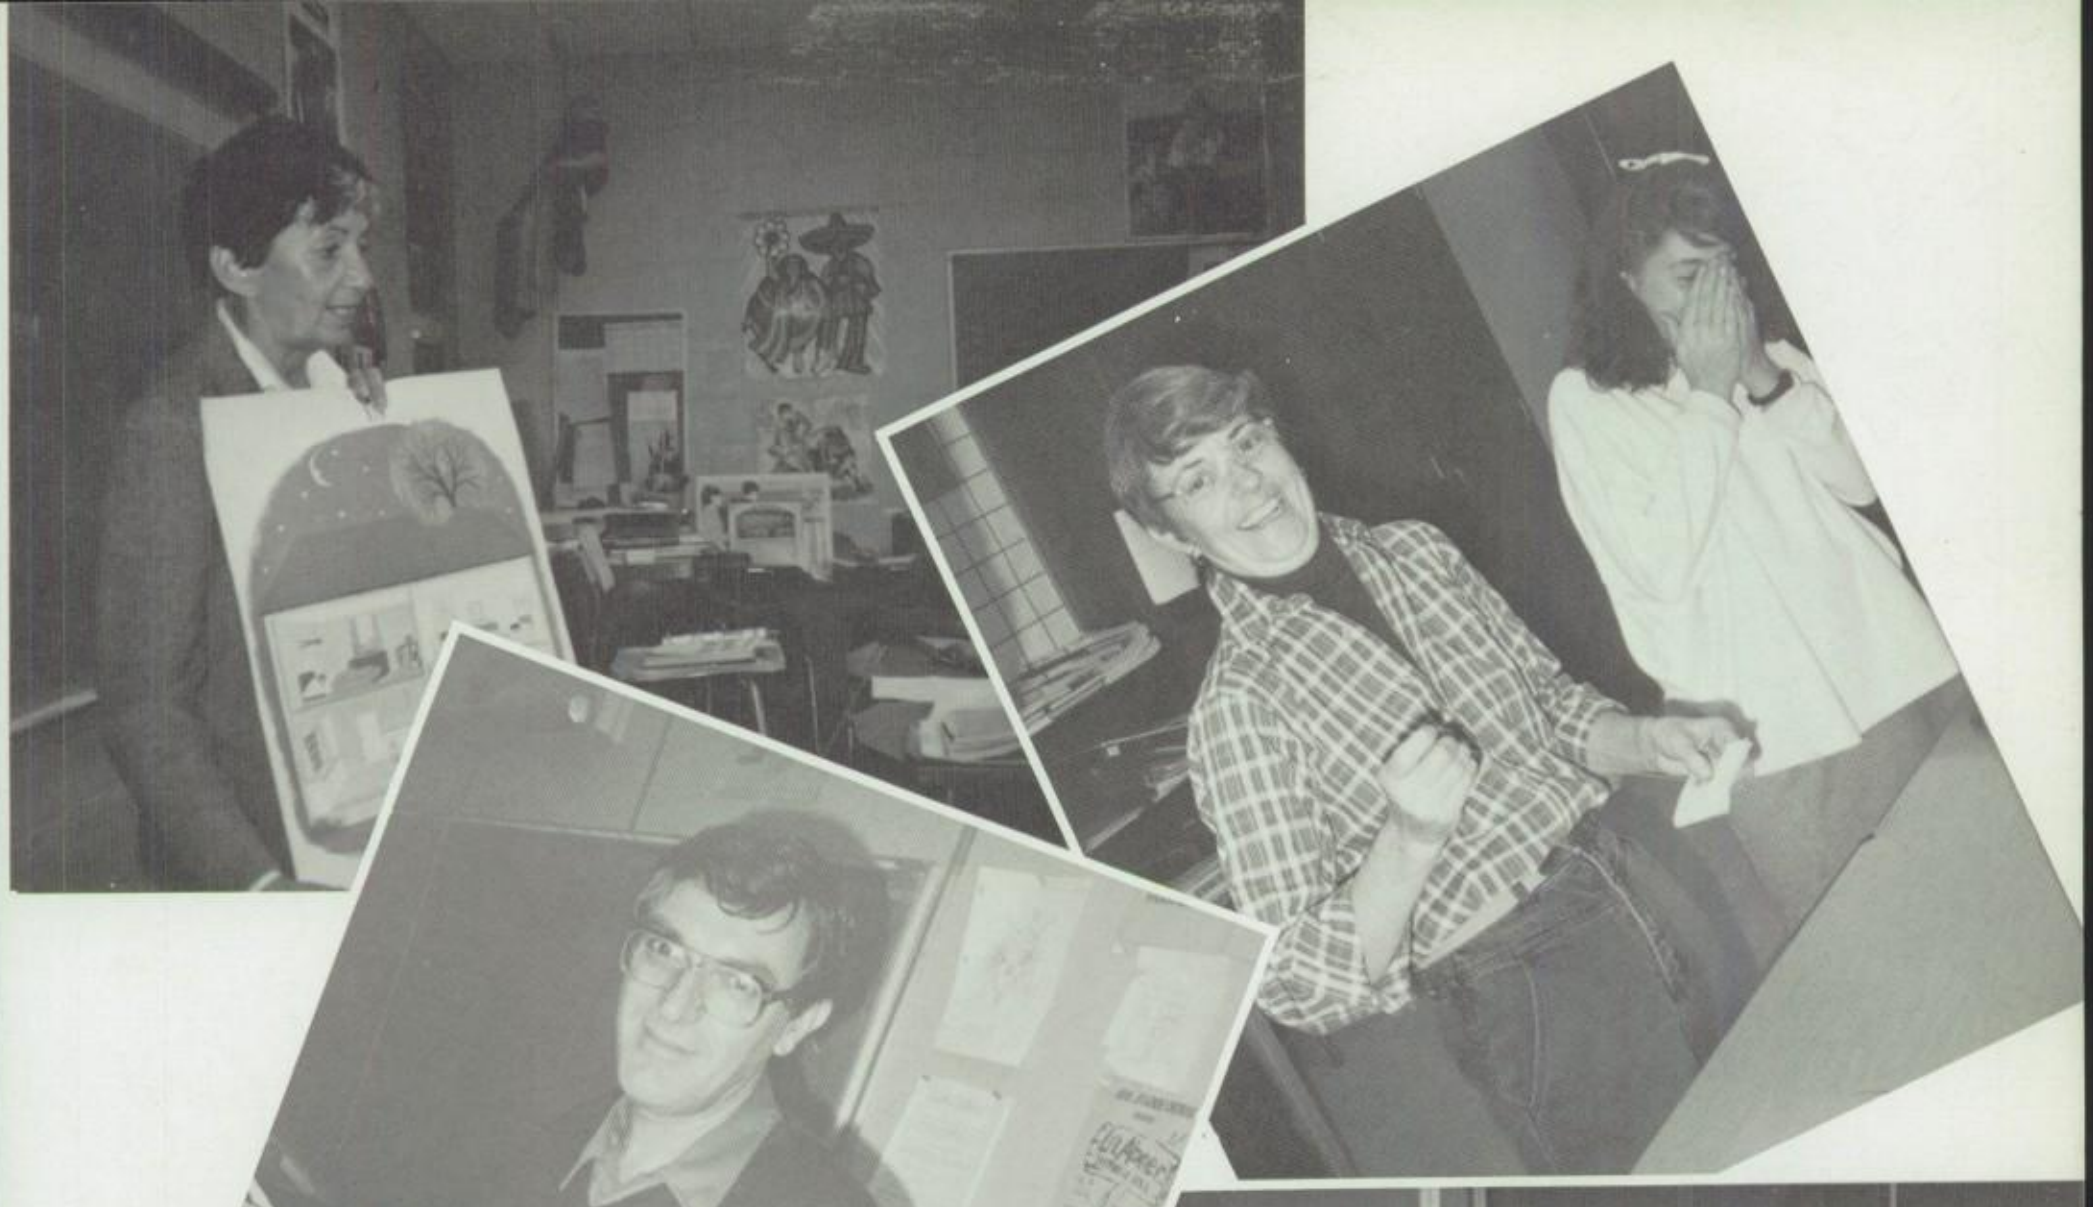
The 7-8 faculty continues with Mr. Schaasfma-Math, Mr. Kissel-Math, Ms. Hamre-Music, Mrs. Nicoll- Social Science, Mr. Jackson-P.E., Mrs. Bierman-P.E., Mrs. Smither (for Mrs. Miller)-Social Science, and Miss Marstellar-Music. Thanks teachers for such a great year.

STILL MORE GREAT TEACHERS





The 7-8 faculty continues with Mrs. Schoplin-English, Mrs. Lynn-Computers; Mrs. Bal-Math, Miss Fisher-English, and Mr. Lukehart-Science.



Miss Morres-Spanish, Mrs. Lievre-Home Economics, Mr. Thach-English, Mr. Logan-P.E. and Mrs. Sanderson (out of costume)-art

Coach, Teacher, Friend
Dick Jackson

Mr. Jackson lives in Glendale with his wife and four children. For the past 25 years he has served our community and our school as an indispensible figure in so many of our sports programs. He has been there to offer words of encouragement and when needed, gentle discipline. His program stresses development of skills and an appreciation of athletics.

DEDICATION: MR. JACKSON

The 1987 Alpha yearbook is dedicated to Mr. Dick Jackson.

Chrissie -

this year has been great. with me being perverted and all, thanks for being a friend. See you soon Love, Andrew Fernando Torres and Luke Watson help to illustrate the many moods of Mr. Jackson: always firm, fair and friendly.

Ali Scharifi joins the groups to give Mr. Jackson a well deserved pat on the back.

Mr. Jackson is always there to lend a "sporting hand," be it the tennis court, the basketball court, football field, spirit days or Turkey Bowl.

It is seldom that anyone sees a frown on Mr. Jackson's face. This photo simply records a moment when Mr. Jackson was trying to figure out why his picture was being taken in the middle of rainy day activities. He didn't know that the eighth grade students had voted him the 1987 recepient of the yearbook dedication award. Congratulations Mr. Jackson!
